Khrushchev Arrives In Iowa To Tour Tall Corn Country

Successful Sojourn In S.F. Leaves Russian Premier In High Spirits

DES MOINES, Iowa (UPI)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev arrived in the heart of America's tall corn country today for a look at some of the world's richest and best-cultivated farmland.

The ex-shepherd boy, who professes himself a farmer at heart, flew from a successful sojourn in San Francisco to this Midwest state capital city for a 30-hour visit.

The Iowa tour's highlights were a mayor's dinner tonight, where Khrushchev could renew old acquaintances with Democratic leader Adlai E. Stevenson, and a visit tomorrow with prosperous farmer Roswell Garst near the little town of Coon Rapids.

MASS OF COLOR

Gala Dinner Ends Nikita's Stay In S.F.

By CHAPIN A. DAY

From above, the official dinner last night for Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev looked something like a flag full of pinwheels stretched out on a long, colorful flagstaff.

The flagstaff was the honor table running the full length of the right side of Palm Court of the Sheraton-Palace Hotel in San Francisco. The pinwheels were the round tables, crowded in so closely waiter could hardly move between to serve the dinner of shrimp cocktail with Russian dressing, stuffed squab, rice with mushrooms, carrots and peas.

The color was provided by flowers on the tables, the corsages and the multi-hues of the women's gowns.

In two other dining rooms to the left, other tables were just as closely bunched and just as full and colorful. Down the hall the big Gold Room with a television screen six feet high and eight feet wide, attracted more spectators, bringing the total crowd to nearly 3,000.

On the second floor, two rooms were set aside for the press, the English Room where there were typewriters and similar facilities, and the French Room, with three big arches looking down directly on the Palm Court diners.

The halls of the Palace were so crowded, even when the dinner was under way, See DINNER, page 4

It was Khrushchev's first look at what the United States is like outside the big cities and diplomatic offices. The Hawkeye state promised a cordial, but restrained, welcome for the Communist leader. As a precaution, Gov. Herschel C. Loveless called out 700 to 800 National Guard troops to protect Khrushchev's safety.

Khrushchev was in high spirits for his introduction to America's farm belt.

His 40 hours in San Francisco were the most pleasant so far of his American tour. For the first time in the United States, Khrushchev received a genuinely warm welcome, and he apparently appreciated it.

His last official words at San Francisco, spoken in a televised speech last night, were a comparison between communism and Christianity. He told Californians "If you will look into our aspirations you will see that we have taken many of Christ's precepts—such as 'love thy neighbor.'"

Today, Khrushchev gave the once-over to an American commuter's nightmare—the traffic jam.

Riding with San Francisco Mayor George Christopher and U.S. United Nations Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge to the San Francisco International Airport, Khrushchev saw inbound cars backed up five miles deep on the James Lick memorial freeway.

"That's a terrible extravagance," Khrushchev said. "Terrible waste. I don't need free-ways yet in Russia."

Christopher said "I had to agree with him, because most

KIDNAPER SAWS BARS

Quentin Escape Attempt Foiled

A second San Quentin cell-block escape within two weeks was foiled today with discovery that two bars had been sawed in the maximum security cell of Norman F. Gagnon, 33, serving a life sentence for kidnapping.

The bars had been sawed through and were held in place by a gummy substance. The breaks were discovered by Sgt. E. F. Ziemer and a party of guards on a special patrol checking cell bars—a precautionary measure taken "at intervals and not on any regular schedule," according to Associate Warden Walter D. Achuff.

FEIGNS SLEEP

Gagnon, who occupied the cell alone, was feigning sleep when the discovery was made. He was promptly whisked to a "holding cell" in the south cell block, which is under constant observation, to await action of the prison disciplinary board. He denied any knowledge of the bars being sawed.

The bars had been sawed in the same manner as those of the cells of Terry G. Russell and Edward L. Lee, from which the inmates escaped Sept. 9, only to be found hours later hiding within the prison yard.

A search of Gagnon's cell yielded no trace of the instrument used to cut the iron bars—which Achuff said was probably a broken piece of hacksaw blade. Hacksaws are used in the prison sheet metal, auto repair and plumbing shops, and "it is impossible to prevent broken pieces being sometimes smuggled out," Achuff said.

PERMITTED IN YARD

As a maximum security prisoner Gagnon was permitted in the prison recreation yard only for fixed daytime periods, but might have concealed the blade somewhere there, the associate warden reported.

Gagnon entered San Quentin last Dec. 23 under a life sentence, without possibility of parole, imposed in Los Angeles County for kidnapping. He had been charged also with a second count of kidnapping, two counts of rape by force, two counts of assault with intent to commit murder and one count of auto theft.

Lee and Russell escaped their cell, after sawing the bars, early on Sept. 8. They had also sawed bars in an outside window to escape the cell block. They slid down the wall on a 40-foot rope made of strips of bedsheets and were outside the compound when a guard spotted them at 1:15 a.m. and fired a warning shot.

Not until three hours and 15 minutes later were they found, hiding in a warehouse outside the compound but within the prison yard.

Richardson Bay Flood Control Plans Speeded

The Marin County Board of Supervisors today acted to speed up plans for flood control in the Richardson Bay basin.

The board: 1. Called for establishment of a bulkhead line on the Sausalito Canal, and 2. Requested the Army Corps of Engineers to suspend all present filling in the bay except that involving dredging permits in the canal itself.

The action was requested by the Marin County Flood Control Advisory Board.

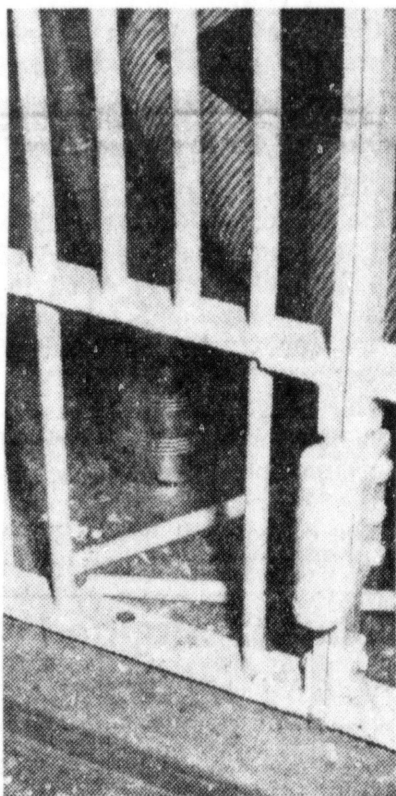

In effect, if the Corps of Engineers agrees, it will stop the

U.N. Debate Set On Nikita's Plan

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—The U. N. General Assembly Steering Committee quickly agreed today to a full U. N. debate on Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's total disarmament proposal.

The committee had been called into a special meeting at the request of Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko who proposed yesterday that the Khrushchev plan be taken up "as an important and urgent matter."

Khrushchev's proposal, made last Friday, called for total disarmament within four years.

County Nurse Involved In Dispute Fired

Miss Laura D. Sypin, supervising registered nurse at the Marin County Hospital and Farm, and subject last week of a closed meeting of the Marin County Board of Supervisors, has been fired effective tomorrow.

It is the same day she was scheduled to return from work after a vacation. A letter notifying her of her termination was mailed yesterday by Lloyd De La Montanya, superintendent of the farm and hospital. De La Montanya is Miss Sypin's boss, and has the authority to fire her.

BOARD GETS COPIES

Copies of the letter were given the board of supervisors today. The board decided that tentatively it would still hold a meeting on charges against her at 9 a.m., Oct. 8.

The board received a letter from Miss Sypin's attorney, John P. O'Connell of San Anselmo, demanding that the hearing be public. Under the Brown Act, the board can hold the hearing in secret unless requested by the employee to make it public.

Exact charges against Miss Sypin never were made public, but it was strongly hinted that she "was not kind," and that she had difficulty getting along with other county employees.

LISTS REASONS

De La Montanya told her she was being discharged for these reasons:

1. Failure to follow instructions of physicians in charge of county hospital patients.
2. Failure to observe proper respect for members of the medical profession as evidenced by discourteous remarks bordering upon slander and relating to members of the medical profession.
3. Discourtesy to patients and visitors.
4. Failure to maintain good and friendly relations with other county employees.

IMPROPER COMPLAINTS

5. Failure to observe the proper line of authority in making complaints to county officials.

6. Discourteous treatment of those conducting business with the county hospital and farm.

It is expected that Miss Sypin will ask for a review of the charges before the county personnel commission.

Supervisors' Chairman Walter R. Castro said he thought the Oct. 8 hearing should be held as planned. Supervisor William D. Fusselman said he thought it should be tentative, and the other supervisors asked for an opinion from the county counsel.

San Rafael City Manager Stricken

Dan E. Andersen, San Rafael city manager, suffered a slight heart attack yesterday afternoon while on the job and was hospitalized at San Rafael General Hospital.

He is expected to be away from his job for about three weeks.

The city council last night wished the city manager a quick recovery and appointed City Clerk W. L. Morgan as acting city manager until Andersen's return. Andersen's new administrative assistant, Paul Richards, will be helping Morgan.

The city manager was reported in good condition this morning at the hospital. He complained of chest pains yesterday and went to his doctor, who ordered him hospitalized. He is not under an oxygen tent.

Manager For Chamber In Novato Named

Directors of the Novato Chamber of Commerce yesterday appointed Robert F. Merritt, former public relations officer of Western Air Defense Force, as secretary-manager of the chamber, replacing George Marshall, who has held the post since 1955.

The appointment became effective Oct. 1.

The new secretary-manager, who retired from the Air Force last month as a lieutenant colonel, had served for four years in the WADF public relations office at Hamilton Air Force Base. His past assignments also include service in Cuba and more than six years on Okinawa, where he was chief of information for the 8th Air Force.

CHAMBER AIDE

Prior to entering the Army Air Forces in 1942, Merritt, who had served earlier with the naval reserve, was secretary-manager of the chamber of commerce at Ashland, Wis., and later at Menominee, Mich.

He is a graduate of Northland College at Ashland.

Prior to his chamber of commerce work, Merritt was editor of the Ashland Daily Press, market editor in the Chicago office of United Press and assistant Iowa state bureau manager for the United Press in Des Moines.

Merritt and his wife reside at 1114 Court road, Novato.

Mrs. Merritt is active in the Garden Group of the Community Club and the Presbyterian Church. Their daughter, Tali, teaches English at Novato High School.

CHURCH ELDER

Merritt serves as elder and chairman of the board of trustees of the Presbyterian Church and is a member of Kiwanis, Toastmasters and Sojourners Clubs. He also belongs to the International Society of Aviation Writers, U.S. Aviation Writers Assn. and the San Francisco Press and Union League Club.

Ex-Airport Site For Project

A million-dollar industrial center will be built on the site of the former San Rafael Airport, developer David Glazer of Greenbrae announced today.

Plans for the development include a freight terminal for trucks, warehouses and factories.

"We're going to try and make it quite a spot. We have big plans," Glazer said. He estimates the entire development of the four-and-one-half acre property will take three or four years.

Glazer said he and his associates—who do not wish to be identified—have the financing necessary for the contemplated project.

The developers plan to build the terminal, factories and warehouses and lease them to tenants. "We're ready to go ahead now," Glazer said.

The property now has some old hangars and the airport office on it. These structures will be demolished and fill needed to bring the property up to grade will be placed.

The developers are working with the Marin Industrial Development Foundation on the project.

Glazer is owner of the Kimball Building and considerable other property in the county.

Petition For Recall To Be Checked

County Clerk George S. Jones today was instructed by the board of supervisors to check for validity under the state Elections Code a petition calling for the recall of Tiburon Fire Commissioner Fred Mantegani.

The petition, bearing 116 names, and accompanied by a letter from commission president Fred Hannahs, was turned over to Jones. He said that as soon as it is determined that the petition is in order, a recall election date can be set.

The board of supervisors appointed Mantegani to fill the term left vacant by the resignation of Howard I. McGill, but appointment did not meet with the approval of many Tiburon residents, or of the board of fire commissioners.

Supervisors Vera Schultz said "the whole difficulty arose because we were not aware that their board wanted to re-view candidates."

New Chief Named By Hub Planners

Mrs. Mary Donnelly was named chairman of the San Anselmo Planning Commission last night in place of Merritt B. Webster, who has resigned.

Lee Busolo was appointed assistant chairman.

Charles Leitzell of 72 Oakland avenue, newly appointed member, was introduced to the commission.

Commercial Dance Ban Urged For Mill Valley

The Mill Valley Parks and Recreation Commission last night voted 3-2 to recommend to the city council that the city support teen-age dances sponsored by the Mill Valley Teen-Agers Assn. or other local responsible groups but to refuse permission for commercial public dances.

Police Chief James P. McGowan had recommended that no further permits be given for commercial public dances after an outbreak of trouble at such a dance at the American Legion Hall. The council referred the matter to the recreation commission for a recommendation.

The dissenting votes last night came from Commissioners Lenore Collor and Joseph Brewster. They claimed the council's instruction asked for study and development of guide lines for dances of a commercial type which might be staged. Two commissioners were absent.

A two-hour discussion preceding the vote involved speakers from the floor, both adult and teen-agers, including Winston Seales, promoter of the affair which brought the matter to a head.

S.F.-Type Housing Eyed For Marin City Project

A proposal to substitute San Francisco-type "row housing" for separate single-family dwellings in the low-cost housing portion of Marin City was referred to the Marin County Redevelopment Agency yesterday by the Marin County Planning Commission.

The suggestion was made by architectural committee appointed two months ago by the planning commission to review the Marin City master plan and suggest improvements.

It brought the reaction of "impractical and impossible" today from Mrs. Mary Summers, county planning director.

The committee, headed by architect John L. King of Belvedere, declared in its report that by constructing the proposed single family homes with common walls, instead of on separate lots, savings could be realized which could go into improving the quality of the living units.

"That is not possible," declared Mrs. Summers, "because the federal government subsidy for Marin City is limited to the redevelopment of land only."

The architects suggested that savings realized by means of the row-housing could be put into construction funds, possibly to enlarge the minimum-size bedrooms to 100 square feet.

Other recommendations by the architectural committee are that:

1. All wall surfaces of large buildings be built with the same type of concrete blocks as is going into the public housing project now under construction in Marin City.
2. Roofs of all buildings be surfaced with dark material, such as crushed brick.
3. Painted stucco, to be used for smaller buildings, be of "dark, quiet earth colors."
4. An "excellent" landscape plan to be developed for the area providing for watering and care of plants.

Hub Woman Defendant In $150,000 Suit

A $150,000 personal injury suit was filed yesterday in Marin Superior Court against Mrs. Cora Hofer of 968 San Anselmo avenue, San Anselmo.

Robert R. Sebastian, 28, former Corte Madera resident who worked for Sohner Tree Service, alleges Mrs. Hofer was negligent when her car struck him on Butterfield road last Nov. 5. Sebastian, now living in Petaluma, is represented by attorney Charles W. Pierce of San Anselmo.

Sebastian says he was loading logs on a truck while two flagmen blocked traffic on both sides of the truck. He alleged Mrs. Hofer stopped for the flagman, then pulled ahead, hitting him in the back. The complainant seeks damages for injuries to his back and neck.

STOCKS TODAY

market settled downward moderately late this afternoon after a recovery drive failed. Turnover was fairly active.

Volume for the day was estimated at 3,200,000 shares compared with 3,240,000 yesterday.

Motors and steels paced the early rally from three days of steep declines. They eased their gains and showed losses of fractions to a point except for American Motors which remained narrowly ahead.

Vigorous rebounds by space age stocks and others which have taken sharp losses recently were greatly diminished and in some cases replaced with further declines.

The pattern was mixed for most major groupings but minus signs predominated.

Surgery Slated To Separate Siamese Twins

VALPARAISO, Ind. (AP) — Two little girls were thriving in an incubator at Porter Memorial Hospital today as their parents and a doctor tried to decide when and where the delicate surgery to separate them should be performed.

The decision to operate on the Siamese twins, joined from breast to lower abdomen in a face-to-face position, already had been made.

"There's really no choice," said their father, Elvin Schultz, an insurance claims adjuster who lives at nearby Chesterton. "The operation has to be performed."

Storm Hampers Search In Gulf

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Stormy seas today hampered a search for seven fishermen missing in the Gulf of Mexico off the water-logged coast of south Florida. Another wet storm was bearing down on the area, promising even more difficult conditions.

Two boats disappeared in the Gulf during heavy weekend rainstorms.

Rockefeller May Enter State Primary

Gov. Nelson Rockefeller of New York is not only seriously considering running for President of the United States, he may make a major effort in the California primary against Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

That was the impression brought back from New York by Marin State Sen. John F. McCarthy of San Rafael. McCarthy and former California Lt. Gov. Harold Powers had a five-hour conference with Rockefeller.

"If this came to pass, the whole political focus of the nation will be here in California," McCarthy declared.

The senator pointed out, however, that no Republican has as yet announced his candidacy.

"I think it is a wonderful thing that the Republican Party has not only a capable man like Vice President Nixon, but also men like Nelson Rockefeller and Henry Cabot Lodge," he said.

Until the candidates announce themselves, no definite decision can be made as to whether Rockefeller will come into the California primary, McCarthy went on, "but I certainly don't stamp out the possibility."

HE'S IMPRESSED

McCarthy, obviously impressed by his meeting with the governor, said Rockefeller "could and would attract many Republicans that other candidates would not. What I am mainly interested in is a presidential candidate that can gain the leadership and respect of not only the Republicans but the necessary percentage of Democrats so that we Republicans can win."

Such an intra-party fight in the California primary would not harm the party, the senator believes. "This could be a rallying point to unite Republicans in a common objective. No one of these candidates is against the other person. It is a matter of the personal judgment of the voters as to which man has the best qualifications."

HIS SUPPORT?

If the battle developed, which man would McCarthy support? "I have been identified to some extent as politically tied to the vice president," McCarthy answered, "however, at this point my position would be wait and see."

He said he found Rockefeller to be a "dedicated individual with a great sense of responsibility and a dynamic personality which attracts the warmth of fellow individuals. He certainly attracted me."

HOW THEY WISH THEY HAD OLD SKUNK AGAIN

POCATELLO, Ida. (AP)—The J. L. Mauk family used to have one skunk. Now they have two new ones, and they wish they had none—or at least had the old one back.

Son John advertised last week that he had lost his pet skunk. Some people found a couple and brought them to the Mauk residence.

Both turned out to be stinkers.

"That stuff is just like mustard gas," said Mrs. Mauk. "It goes through anything. I'd gladly trade both skunks we have for John's old skunk."

Seminary Has Students Of Nine Nations

Nine nations on five continents — Europe, Africa, Asia, North and South America — and 35 states of the union are represented in the student body of Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary on Strawberry Point. The fall registrations which have just closed brought the total enrollment at the seminary to 329 for the 1959-1960 session.

Statistical data released by Mrs. Archie Martin, registrar, indicate that 15 students are from Japan, Korea, Hong Kong, Italy, Cuba, Panama and Canada. The remainder are students from the United States. Texans lead the enrollment with 61 students; California trails closely behind with 56; Oklahoma is third with 35 students.

Of those enrolled for the fall semester, 231 are ministerial students, 52 religious education students and four church music majors. In addition, there are 27 certificate students who will be given certificates instead of degrees after completion of their studies, and four special students whose status will be determined later.

This is the first academic year for Golden Gate Seminary on its new 126-acre campus at Strawberry Point. It was formerly located in Berkeley, where it had outgrown its quarters. Dr. Harold K. Graves is president of the institution, which is supported by the Southern Baptist Convention.

South Lanes Urged 1st On Paradise Dr.

The Corte Madera Town Council last night heard persuasive arguments for early construction of the two south lanes of a Paradise drive improvement project that will eventually provide a four-lane divided road.

So persuasive was the presentation of developer Alex Russell of Healdsburg that councilmen indicated they might reverse a decision to build the two north lanes first.

Before reaching any conclusions, however, they want Town Manager Arthur H. Brandow to determine what, if any, additional expense would be involved.

COST REPORT SLATED

Brandow was instructed to start negotiations with the engineering firm of Wilsey and Ham for preparation of plans for the south lanes. He is to give a cost report to the council at its Oct. 5 meeting. Plans for the north lanes have been completed.

Pending its decision on the road project, the council postponed advertising for bids for extension of a drainage culvert at San Clemente Creek and Paradise drive.

Russell and his partner, Wilbur Jones of San Francisco, expect to start construction of a neighborhood shopping center next April on property fronting the south side of Paradise drive, just west of the entrance to Marin Estates subdivision.

INITIAL BUSINESSES

Initially, the center will include an Embee market, a pharmacy and two service stations.

Russell noted that immediate construction of the north lanes is strenuously opposed by Marina Village home owners, four of whom would have to relinquish portions of their backyards. He said if the south half of the road is built first, he and Jones would agree in writing to install curbs and gutters along their property as the shopping center is developed.

He told councilmen the offer would hinge on the signing of a similar agreement by Eugene Byrnes of Corte Madera, owner of adjacent commercial land west of the shopping center site.

Answering one of Brandow's arguments against building the

Council Hears Complaints Of Lagoon Weeds

After listening patiently to many complaints about the condition of weed-choked lagoon No. 2 in Madera Gardens subdivision, the Corte Madera Town Council last night agreed to study possible corrective measures.

However, Mayor Roger F. Morse cautioned a large citizen delegation that the town's sole responsibility for both Madera Gardens lagoons is to maintain them as drainage—not recreational—facilities.

The council directed Town Manager Arthur H. Brandow to:

1. Write Lakeside Development Co., owner of Lagoon No. 2, asking if it would cooperate with waterfront home owners "to the extent of deepening the lagoon."

2. Inquire of various state and local agencies what methods might be employed to destroy the weeds without polluting the lagoon.

3. Report at the council's Oct. 5 meeting what work is required to insure satisfactory operation of the lagoon as a drainage facility.

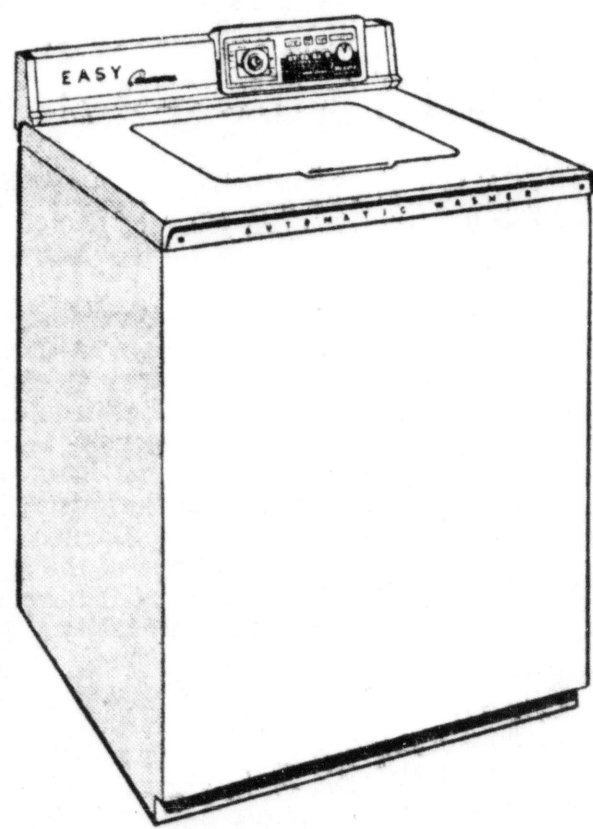

Brandow said he plans to have town crews clear weed growth and debris within a 50-foot radius of the lagoon's drainage outfall structure.

OPERA OVERTONES IN MARIN

Mrs. Angelo Sabella chats with Guiseppe Guisondo, Italian tenor of the San Francisco Opera, who was one of five leading members of the opera who attended a luncheon yesterday at Sabella's restaurant in Alto to meet the Marin County press corps. Other opera singers at the luncheon were Gabriella Tucci, Italian soprano, who sings her San Francisco Opera debut Friday night in "Andrea Chenier"; Sebastian Feiersinger, German tenor; Louis Quilico, French-Canadian baritone, and Mino Yahia, Egyptian basso. Guisondo will sing the part of Rudolfo in "La Boheme" on Oct. 19.

Corte Madera To Seek State Land For Parking

The Corte Madera Town Council will ask the state to deed the town a small parcel of property by the southeast quadrant of the Corte Madera traffic interchange.

Town Manager Arthur H. Brandow was directed last night to make the request in writing.

A letter from the town planning commission recommended acquisition of the unzoned state-owned "island" for possible development as a landscaped public parking area. It is adjacent to Paradise drive, near Highway 101.

Concurring with the planners, Brandow termed general appearance of the property "one of the most persuasive arguments" for acquisition. He said he believes the suggested use would be visually more attractive than a service station or restaurant.

The planning commission acted after learning the state Division of Highways might sell the parcel to private commercial interests.

Asked about the possibility of condemning the state property, Town Atty. John B. Ehlen said this could be done if it were shown conclusively that the "paramount public interest" would be served by town rather than state ownership. Ehlen suggested that "as an initial step," a grant deed be sought from the state.

The Corte Madera Council also:

1. Learned from Ehlen that the Mill Valley Garbage Co. might attempt to cancel its franchise with the town if the council votes to exclude dry trash from a garbage collection agreement with the firm. Action on an amendment to that effect was postponed to Oct. 5 pending a report by Ehlen.

2. Passed a resolution accepting

One Annexation New Signatures Delay Incorporated, One Decision Turned Down

San Rafael decided to annex eight more acres of land adjacent to the Freitas ranch last night, but cold-shouldered a 72-acre parcel in the hills above Portola Gardens near Santa Venetia.

The eight-acre parcel, owned by Jerry F. and Bess E. Hamlin, lies near Hartzell School, where Eichler Homes is putting in its new Terra Linda Valley subdivision. City fathers approved the annexation unanimously.

But on the Portola Heights request for annexation, the councilmen decided the area is too inaccessible to be of advantage to the city. Councilman Charles W. Aby declared city services such as police and fire protection would have to cross county territory to reach the area. Mayor John F. McInnis and Councilmen Louis H. Baar and Fred E. Jensen agreed. Councilman Joseph F. Sauer was absent because of illness.

In other action last night, the city council:

1. Awarded a $10,159.50 contract to John W. Lemon Co. of Oakland to repair a slide area on Fairhill drive southeast of Valley View avenue. Four other bids ranged to a high of $16,110.

2. Approved a green zone for 15-minute parking in front of Canziani Market at 501 B street.

Wolfe Grade Apartment Turned Down

An apartment building should not be allowed to go up off Wolfe Grade in south San Rafael, the city council decided last night.

The action backs up the San Rafael Planning Commission, which recommended that the apartment be turned down because it would be spot zoning in an area reserved for first-class residential homes with 20,000-sq-ft minimum lots.

The area proposed for rezoning apartment building is three acres of land on the first sharp curve on Wolfe Grade. Richard Bettini, representing the property owners, said it is his understanding that none of the neighbors is opposed to the apartment building.

However, one letter of protest turned in last night by Roy W. Taylor of 45 Wolfe avenue, and Councilman Louis H. Baar reported he had received an oral protest from another neighbor.

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—An arson investigation was under way today, after a three-alarm fire which destroyed four floors of the Sterling Furniture Co.

Lucky Drive Drainage Pact Approved By Town, School

The Corte Madera Town Council last night "endorsed" and trustees of Tamalpais Union High School District "approved in principle" a proposed agreement on the Lucky drive drainage project near Redwood High School.

Under the proposal, $20,000 is to be the town's maximum contribution for construction of a drainage outfall structure at Lucky drive and Corte Madera high canal.

The town originally agreed to pay $15,481, but offered to raise the ante to meet the low bid of $33,459 by V. Maggiora and Son of Sausalito.

Mayor Roger F. Morse suggested the change Friday night at a meeting of town officials and representatives of Lucky Drive Assessment District. Maggiora's bid is $8,693 above the estimate.

To permit awarding of the contract, Corte Madera would be required to make a cash advance beyond its $20,000 commitment.

Pumping of water from Corte Madera's lagoon No. 1 to facilitate repair of a submerged eight-inch sewer main is expected to start this afternoon or tomorrow morning.

The work will be done for Corte Madera Sanitary District by V. Maggiora and Son of Sausalito.

Two large pumps were taken to the lagoon by truck this morning, but start of the project was awaiting of a crane to unload them.

The pumping, expected to take about 24 hours, will be done near the district's Lake-side drive pump station. The sewer line break occurred Sept. 5 near the waterfront home of Mr. and Mrs. Angelo B. Ferreri at 20 Council Crest drive.

Two previous attempts to reach the trouble spot without emptying the lagoon ended in failure.

Knifing Suspect To Enter Plea

Vassie Taylor, 37-year-old Vallejo garbage man suspected of knifing another man at a Marin City dance early Sunday, was to appear in court this afternoon to plead.

Victim of the stabbing, John (Spot) Times, 26, Marin City laborer was still in serious condition today at Marin General Hospital. He is expected to live. Taylor's brother, Jeremiah, 35, was released from jail yesterday. Jeremiah volunteered for a lie detector test, which cleared him of any connection with the knifing.

Steps Taken For Belvedere Sewage Disposal Service

First steps toward development of a coordinated sewage disposal system which would provide service for the City of Belvedere through facilities of the Tiburon Sanitary District were taken last night in an informal discussion between city and district officials.

City Manager Britton Rey and Dr. John Flint, representing Belvedere, met with Mrs. Juanita Lane and Robert A. Sterling, representing the district, to discuss means of effecting agreement.

Belvedere, which has no sewage processing plant, releases its sewage in deep water off Belvedere Point. The city has been pressed to install a treatment plant. Use of the Tiburon plant has been suggested.

However, the Tiburon district facilities are inadequate to handle service for Belvedere in addition to the present load. Major additions to the plant's facilities and equipment would be necessary.

The association agreed to write a letter to County Supervisor William Gnos, asking for signs in school zones stating the speed limit is 25 miles per hour.

New Polaris Sub Launched By Navy

GROTON, Conn. (UPI)—The Polaris missile firing submarine Patrick Henry, one of the Navy's "big sticks" in peace or war, was launched today.

About 20,000 persons watched the huge brown hull of the 380-foot craft slip off the ways at the electric boat yards of General Dynamics Corp. and into the Thames River.

The sub, second of its class to be launched here within three months, was sponsored by Mrs. Leslie C. Arends, wife of the Illinois congressman Her 12-year-old daughter, Letty, served as her maid of honor.

Trunk Sewer Condemnation Suit Planned

The Novato Sanitary District board last night moved to proceed with condemnation of the property of Domenico Tivato, east of Clausen avenue, to gain easement rights for construction of a new main trunk sewer line.

The proposed line would run from the sewage plant at the end of Davidson street to a point west of Highway 101 at the intersection of Lamont avenue.

The board acquired easement rights across the properties of John Novak, the Nunes Brothers and the Western California Telephone Co.

Today and tomorrow the Novato board and Air Force representatives were to discuss a new contract for sewage service to Hamilton Air Force Base, including the Capehart housing project, west base housing and the west slope of the base not now covered by contract.

NURSE

Continued from page 1 (De La Montanya's) are mostly those enumerated in the previous letter (one from County Administrator Donald A. Jensen last week). Supervisor Vera Schultz said.

It was also brought out today that Miss Sybin once before had been fired by De La Montanya for "unauthorized leave," but had been reinstated by the board. The discharge was March 11, 1958. The leave later was considered as retroactive sick leave.

"At that time," said Jensen, "there absolutely was no indication that Miss Sybin's work was below par."

"I had heard at that time," said Fusselman "that someone was not happy with her and that this was a good way to get rid of her."

DINNER

Continued from page 1 that it was difficult to move. Just before Khrushchev was to enter the dining hall and just as he was to leave, it was impossible.

Hemingway's Plea Brings Results From Pickpocket

MADRID (UPI)—Ernest Hemingway's public appeal to the pickpocket who stole his billfold has paid off.

Hemingway's billfold was stolen while the Nobel-prize winning author signed autographs at a bullfight festival in Murcia, in southern Spain.

Hemingway—in Spain gathering material to bring his bullfight classic "Death in the Afternoon" up to date—made a public appeal to the unknown pickpocket.

"I beg you to return by billfold and the medal of St. Christopher in it," he told the thief in the columns of Spain's press.

"But you can keep the 9,000 pesetas ($150) as a tribute to your skill."

Sunday, someone handed a package to the doorman of the midtown apartment where Hemingway's friend, bullfighter Antonio Ordenez, lives.

NIKITA

Some of the stalled motorists recognized the powerful visitor. Two women in a car waved their red coats at him.

A military Boeing 707 jet carried the Khrushchev party across the Rocky Mountains and over Reno, Salt Lake City and Omaha to Des Moines.

One of his first sights at Des Moines Municipal Airport was a billboard carrying the message in Russian "Let us seek peace together." The words were written by a Des Moines housewife who won a contest for the best five-word greeting to Khrushchev.

Khrushchev's afternoon schedule included a brief stop at his $50-a-day suite at the Fort Des Moines Hotel and then a trip to the Des Moines Packing Co., a small plant employing only 150 men and specializing in the manufacture of hot dogs.

Next on Khrushchev's itinerary was a tour of the John Deere agricultural implement factor 10 miles outside of Des Moines.

Khrushchev's last stop in Iowa before flying on to Pittsburgh and Washington will be at Iowa State University at Ames, one of the nation's leading farm institutions.

Mint Making Money On Money-Making

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Bureau of the Mint is making money on its money-making operations.

You could do the same if you could legally manufacture 100 pennies for 27 cents or a dollar's worth of nickels for just 12 cents.

That's the kind of profit the mints are making on the production of pennies, nickels, dimes, quarters and half dollars.

The mint made available to a reporter a study which showed that it makes a profit of 73 cents on every 100 pennies. Manufacturing costs come to eight cents and the metal used in the pennies costs 19 cents. The rest is profit.

On five-cent pieces, it takes only 9 cents worth of metal to make a dollar's worth. Manufacturing costs total 3 cents.

The mint business is so profitable that some officials would like Congress to stop making an annual appropriation for the bureau. The money isn't needed. Congress insists on making a token appropriation, however, on the theory this gives the legislators more control over the agency.

In the 1957 fiscal year, the latest for which tabulations are available, the mint had a total income of nearly 94 million dollars. About half of it was clear profit which was turned over to the Treasury's general fund.

All this was done on an appropriation of $3,650,000.

The mint even makes money by the simple process of buying silver bars. It pays about 91 cents a pound for silver bullion, which is then automatically revalued at $1.29 a pound. This is done because a pound of silver is the monetary equivalent of $1.29 worth of silver certificates.

In the latest fiscal year, these quick profits on silver bullion came to nearly seven million dollars.

Most Bureau of the Mint statistics do not take manufacturing costs into account. Instead they show revenues from seigniorage—a fancy term meaning the difference between the face value of new coins and the cost of the metal that went into them.

In 1958, the mint paid $3,666,984 for copper, nickel, zinc and tin used to make pennies and nickels with a total face value of $25,376,296. That operation netted Uncle Sam $21,709,222, less manufacturing costs.

The six-to-one seigniorage ration on pennies and nickels compares with less than two-to-one on silver coins. In 1958, the mints used $35,573,867 worth of silver to make coins worth $68,270,119.

A formal celebration of California's admission to the Union was held in San Francisco Oct. 29, 1850, when a new star was added to the flag flying in the Plaza.

Hearing Dates On Apartment Proposal Set

The Marin County Planning Commission yesterday set Oct. 5 and 19 as dates for public hearings on the Central Court master plan proposed to permit development of two-story apartment buildings on 7.8 acres northeast of the Alto interchange.

The plan, as proposed by developer Robert Lindskog, includes plans for 70 one-bedroom and 44 two-bedroom units on the site, now zoned "planned residential," permitting construction of apartments.

The commissioners yesterday also:

1. Approved request by Nello's Pizza Restaurant to erect a 60-square-foot sign to overhang the property line by five feet off Highway 101 between Alto and Richardson Bay Bridge.

2. Denied a request by W. A. Magee for permission to complete a partially finished carport to within 11 feet of the front property line at 758 Appleberry drive, Marinwood, after 10 letters of protest were read objecting that the carport would be at variance with county setback requirements in that area.

3. Continued to Oct. 19 the following: (1) a hearing on proposed amendments to the Greenwood Lagoon Master Plan to show a plan of reorganization of development for 30 acres between Tiburon boulevard and the Salt Works Canal southeast of the Bel Air Shopping Center by new property owners, Mrs. Mary Burrell, Belvedere, and Harry Hicks, Palo Alto; (2) a petition by Edith S. Bates to reclassify a 16,000 square-foot parcel at Shasta way and Shoreline highway from single-family residential to multiple-family zoning.

4. Approved proposed additions to the hotel and general store of Joseph Medosa at Point Reyes Station, on condition that off-street parking be maintained.

5. Approved application by Harold R. La Bonte Jr. to build a retaining wall and two tennis courts at the Harbor Point Beach Club, Strawberry.

6. Set Oct. 5 as the date for a public hearing on a resolution of intention to amend Ordinance 264 to reclassify Northridge Unit 3, Santa Venetia, to single-family residential zoning; it is now zoned limited agricultural and suburban agricultural.

7. Approved a variance to permit construction of single family residences on two lots of Northridge subdivision off Mark Twain avenue, Santa Venetia, prior to any adoption of amendments to Ordinance 264, as requested by Billings-Hutchinson, Inc.

The recommendation was referred to the Marin County Board of Supervisors, which was to consider it today at the request of Supervisor Walter R. Castro.

8. Continued a public hearing on the tentative map of Gallinas Village 6A, as proposed by International Investment Co. of San Francisco to Oct. 5, the next regular board meeting. An exception to the subdivision ordinance is requested to permit approval of lot sizes not in accordance with the approved Gallinas Village master plan. Possibly realignment of North San Pedro road will be considered.

9. Continued to Oct. 5 a hearing on proposed amendments to the county zoning ordinance which would create additional multiple residential districts. Continuation was arranged to allow commissioners time to review the proposals.

10. Approved plans by Our Lady of Love Church, Novato, to add a guest room to the rectory off Grant avenue, on condition that the work be started within one year.

Tam Evening Teachers Paid Below Usual

Teachers at Tamalpais Union High School District's adult evening school receive 61 cents an hour less than the average paid at comparable Northern California adult schools, according to a report submitted last night to district trustees.

The average 1959-60 hourly rate at other schools listed in the report is $4.86, compared with $4.25 paid by the Tam district. The report said $4.65 was the average last year at other adult schools.

The comparative data was presented by James Pierce, Redwood High School teacher and chairman of the district teachers' association's subcommittee on hourly rates.

The report, taken under advisement by trustees, did not recommend a specific increase for teachers in the adult school.

Five Cities Get State Funds For Harbor Projects

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The state Small Craft Harbors Commission voted yesterday to loan more than three million dollars to five California cities to build and plan small boat marinas.

H. G. Stevens, chief of the Small Craft Harbor Division, said the largest state loan went to the City of San Leandro. That city was approved for a $1,600,000 loan to complete the second phase of its current project to build a small boat harbor.

Martinez received the second largest loan, $1,500,000.

All the money comes from a special investment fund of the state, Stevens said, and is repaid by the cities from the revenues they gain through the use of marinas.

The money is repaid over 20 years for construction loans and over 10-year periods for planning loans.

Three cities were approved for $10,000 planning loans, including Needles, the Salton Community Service District of the Salton Sea, and Paso Robles, Stevens said.

Can We Blame Khrushchev For Misunderstanding Us?

It is easy to see why Premier Nikita Khrushchev could read interpretations into his visit to this country which will reinforce many of his many misconceptions about the United States.

Here in California he was "charmed," he said, by the people, particularly of the San Francisco Bay area. "You have charmed my heart," he declared, "but in my mind I still think our system is a good system."

And his mind was given dozens of little things on which to dwell, things said and done by our people without thought as to how they might be interpreted.

The premier didn't understand that the police guard was to protect him from crackpots. He thought it was to keep him from seeing the common people. "Where are the workers?" he asked over and over again. He couldn't understand that the workers were those people driving around in automobiles. He wasn't allowed to go to Disneyland "because some one threw a tomato at my car, it may have been a very good tomato," and hit the Los Angeles police chief's car. He didn't understand the security problems such a visit would have entailed.

He was told we in this country are free men of free will. Then one of the principal speakers at last night's official banquet told him the two thousand people were there because the president had told them to be there.

He met with many of the nation's top labor leaders in a sharp, biting session. Then he went to a labor union hall and was cheered every time he took a breath during his informal speech.

He was taken through one of the most modern and plush factories in the area, and was told by a principal speaker that this is a "typical American factory," when he could see other factories as he drove along our highways.

Why must we, with the best of practically everything, always try to make it just a little better? Why can't we be ourselves and present ourselves as we are, rather than pretend we are more?

Each little contradiction makes it more obvious to one who desires to think so, that we are also lying about our major objectives of peace and friendship throughout the world.

If Khrushchev left the Bay Area this morning believing we live in a police state, under a presidential dictator, where labor leaders are "Wall Street stooges" and a visitor can't see what he wants to see, who can blame him?

Freak Blossoms Are News

What's new in Nature in Marin this season? This question was put to a botanically minded friend of ours. After a few seconds of cogitation he replied, "Freak blossoms."

He went on to explain that many plants when they undergo severe drought tend to give a last-gasp effort to reproduce themselves. The flower stems may be short and the flowers frazzled and out of season, but such is nature's inclination to keep the earth plentiful that any reproduction seems better than none.

Thus, this summer and autumn we have seen a strange array of flowers blooming out of season. Mostly they are wild, for our tame, cultivated species have become utterly dependent upon the hand of man. It's an interesting phenomena to which we call your attention.

Old Soldier Bradley Not Fading Away; He's Fighting New Enemy

NEW YORK (AP) — Many old soldiers spend their time re-fighting in memory their half-forgotten battles.

Not Gen. Omar Nelson Bradley, who at the close of World War II commanded 1,300,000 combat troops, the largest body of U.S. soldiers ever to serve under a field leader.

"I don't think back on the war period very much," he said.

For one thing he's too busy. At 66, the tall, sturdy "dough-boy's general" — he weighs only a few pounds more than he did when he played baseball at West Point — is fighting a new enemy — space.

Bradley is board chairman of the Bulova Watch Co. The firm has turned out miniature safety and arming devices for 19 of the nation's defense missile programs.

"At the close of the last war I had to worry about a 600-mile front," remarked Bradley dryly. "Now we deal with problems involving millions of an inch."

"Size is of vital importance because for every added pound of weight in a missile you require several pounds of fuel to get it up," he said.

Although excited by the challenge of space conquest, Bradley observed: "We may have observers out in space but I can't foresee space armies in our lifetime."

"I don't think we're going to have another war as long as we stay strong enough to act as a deterrent," he said. "The biggest danger is that a brush fire may get out of hand."

"If we don't retain our capability to fight a war such as the last one, we invite more Koreans and Indo-Chinas. The doughboy and the tank aren't obsolete," he said.

It amuses him when he is asked if he found difficult his transition from military commander to civilian business leader. He points out that as the postwar veterans' administrator he supervised a six-billion-dollar annual budget.

"A MILITARY organization and an industrial firm are really quite similar," he said.

"There is, of course, one big difference. In one you worry about the lives of your men. In the other you worry about spending the stockholders' money."

Bradley, a friendly, kindly man who was never one to throw his stars around, at the start impressed on his associates "there is no rank during a meeting." He recalled that he was brought up under that belief by his chief, Gen. George C. Marshall.

"HE KNEW that no one man could always have the right answer," said Bradley. "He insisted that if all views weren't expressed, clearly and forthrightly, he might not know the right action to take."

20 YEARS AGO

Marin Junior College reported growth from 93 to 691 students in 13 years. Facilities of the institution were reported to be taxed to the utmost.

The Lester S. Ready report on financial structure of a proposed municipal transportation district went before the Marin County supervisors as preparation for an election to form such a district. Included were details of the costs of establishing both trains-ferries and buses.

With hot, dry weather prevailing, half the personnel of the Alpine Lake Civilian Conservation Corps camp was rushed to fire lines in Mendocino, Humboldt, Lake and northern Sonoma Counties to battle a total of 12 forest fires.

The Independent-Journal paid respects on its editorial page to "The Wood Chopper of Doom," a German named Hitler who had just pledged that he wouldn't take off his soldier's uniform until it had been worn in victory. It was the newspaper's view that Hitler should ponder the fate of Wilhelm Hohenzollern, "a bent old man, chopping a little wood for exercise . . . toddling over to the wall to stick little colored pins in a great map of the country which was once his realm."

HOW TO INTERPRET POLITICAL DOUBLE TALK

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Public Should Purchase Bay

EDITOR, Independent-Journal:

A plan to develop Richardson's Bay for recreational use is being discussed at public hearings. Marin County planning staff, the City of Mill Valley, and some of the private owners of land in this area are cooperating in this plan.

Most Marin residents agree that Richardson's Bay, as a bay, is the greatest natural asset of Southern Marin. Most residents don't know that the "bay" is a tide land area owned completely by private individuals except for a 700 foot wide strip of water known as the Sausalito Canal.

For maximum recreation value; long-range tax income; adequate flood control and permanent scenic beauty, an area of open water that is large enough to look like a bay, and function as a bay, is imperative.

Richardson's "Bay" will become a filled-in valley with a 700-foot strip of water running down the middle unless immediate action is taken by the Board of Supervisors. Public interest demands acquisition of the tidelands that will be under permanent open water in the bay.

Why is immediate action so imperative? Marin County has applied to the state for a loan of $300,000 to dredge Sausalito Canal. As soon as this canal becomes a reality, the price of tidal property will boom in value. The public will never be able to purchase tideland for a future open bay unless purchase is immediate.

It is estimated that tideland in the present "bay" is worth about $2,000 per acre. The future of the same property, once the canal is completed, is estimated from $10,000 to $30,000 per acre.

When condemnation proceedings are filed, the value of THE LAND is frozen. In the interest of all residents of Marin this step should be taken at once. The areas to be condemned should be those tidelands under open water shown on the plan for Richardson's Bay now being prepared by the Marin County planning staff.

10 YEARS AGO

John David Provoo, 32-year-old son of a retired San Francisco paint contractor living on a Sausalito ark, was arraigned on a treason charge in New York. Ark neighbors knew young Provoo as a language expert. He was accused of broadcasting enemy propaganda over Tokyo radio.

Marin residents bothered by yellow jackets had to content themselves with advice to wait for cooler weather. Thomas Peryam, county agricultural commissioner, said recent dry winters were to blame for a lot of people getting stung in early fall. A Fairfax resident estimated his yellow jacket population as "about a million."

Attorney Gilbert C. Wheat and Ross city councilman John Painter were named co-chairmen of the Ross campaign of the Marin Community Chest.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

A flamboyant starlet was told that the bespectacled young man in the corner was worth ten million dollars on the hoof, so she was fawning on him in two shakes of a lamb's tail. Noting that his gaze was at her shockingly low cut dress, she pouted, "I told that disgraceful dress-maker of mine this dress was entirely too revealing, but it made no impression on her. Tomorrow she's going to raise it at least an eighth of an inch or know the reason why!"

The sheriff of a sleepy Southern town has held office now for forty-two consecutive years. His reason for not stepping down invariably silences hecklers and political adversaries. "I'm plumb afraid to quit," he explains. "How do we know that my successor wouldn't be even more corrupt than I am?"

A Texan was moaning long and loud about the fact that Texas was now only the second largest state in the Union. "Stop crying," warned a man from Juneau, "or we'll cut Alaska in two — and make you third!"

Schools Superintendent Asked To Say A Few Words And He Did

Dr. Virgil S. Hollis, county superintendent of schools, was asked to "say a few words" after several speeches had been made at a recent luncheon meeting of Larkspur School District personnel.

He did just that. In about two sentences, he offered the assistance of his department to administrators and teachers of the elementary district.

Amazed by the brevity of Hollis' remarks were Dr. Vaughn D. Seidel, assistant Larkspur superintendent and former longtime superintendent of Alameda County schools.

"I've been a county superintendent so long I didn't know it was possible to find one who'd stand up and sit down so fast," quipped Seidel.

FIRST ANNIVERSARY of the Corte Madera Shopping Center was marked last week with the cutting of a huge cake by Corte Madera business and civic leaders.

Fashioned as a replica of the shopping center, the cake was a masterpiece of the Lady Baltimore Bakery. All of the center's 29 stores and services were included, and even identified by name with icing letters.

As the first slice was about to be cut, Ken Molino, San Rafael commercial photographer and former I-J lensman, remarked: "This is the only way you'll get a piece of Corte Madera Center without investing any money."

AN "INTERIM emergency plan for nuclear disaster" was submitted to the Corte Madera Town Council for approval recently by Town Manager Arthur H. Bradow.

Asked what it was all about, Bradow laughed and replied: "Well, it tells who'll sound the siren and which way we are going to run."

NO, THAT ISN'T the ghost of King George V of England walking around the College of Marin campus these days. It's a teacher, Stephen Bruff, sporting a summer-grown grey beard — and a very full one.

The crew-cut Bruff could well change his name to Brush

WE SEE THAT the California Moose Assn. has honored Butte County Sheriff Larry Gillick as "Moose Man of the Year." A former Pacific Coast League pitcher, he was cited for his outstanding record of law enforcement, civic projects and sponsorship of youth activities.

It couldn't have happened to a nicer guy.

We got to know Gillick well during our reporting days in Butte County. He's a "reporter's sheriff," if there is such a thing—the kind of law chief who'll shout to a newshawk: "Hop in the car. We're going after that armed robber."

And the reporter, risking a shot through the heart from the gun of a cornered suspect, comes up with a eyewitness account of the capture.

Gillick is known as "Mr. Little League" and "Santa Claus" in Butte County for his organization of Little League baseball activities and his compassion for underprivileged kids at Christmas-time. All through the year, his county jail prisoners repair and spruce up discarded toys for Yule distribution to youngsters of needy families.

If Nikita Had Acted As He Talks Now, We'd Have No Cold War

The value of Premier Khrushchev's visit and his talks with President Eisenhower should not be judged hastily.

What is needed right now, it seems to me, is to be sure: That we do not confuse nice words with needed acts.

That we do not falsely expect important decisions to be taken soon by either side.

That we keep up our guard — and even improve it — mentally and militarily — until deeds by each prove to the other that peaceful co-existence means something nearer to America's relations with Mexico than Russia's relations with Hungary.

KHRUSHCHEV HAS fairly said that this far his days in the United States have, to him seemed a "good beginning." What is more important is how they end and how the President's return visit goes and whether these beginnings provide a basis for a four-power summit conference that would be productive.

From listening to every public statement Khrushchev has made since his arrival and from watching his versatile performance at the National Press Club, it is evident that he wants to present himself to Americans — and to all others — as a "man of peace" a man of peaceful words, a peaceful purposes, peaceful acts, the leader of a nation which everyone can trust as having no wish to "interfere in the internal affairs" of other countries.

IF THIS HAD been true since the end of World War II — if there had been no Communist interference in the internal affairs of Czechoslovakia, Hungary, Poland, Korea, Indo-China, Tibet, and Laos — there would be no cold war today.

Premier Khrushchev earnestly avows that he wants to end the cold war. My impression of his Press Club talk is that the way he would like to end it would be to forget all the past, especially the unhappy past, and start all over in confidence that everybody is trustworthy and that agreements can be accepted on face value.

Perhaps Khrushchev has a change of heart and a change of policy, although it was Khrushchev who personally directed the Hungarian repression. When he was asked about Hungary, he made it clear that he considered it provocative. His answer was that the two countries have "done away with all questions which caused difficulty" and that "we are now going along the same road."

But wasn't it Russia, not both countries, which removed the differences between them — with tanks?

WHAT I AM trying to say is that Americans are not being provocative when they raise matters like Hungary. Americans are simply being honest and candid, because if it weren't for the Hungarians, there would be no cold war.

It is not a meaningful statement of the problem to just say, "Let's ease tensions, let's have no cold war." The real problem is how to end the cold war and at the same time insure against future Hungaries, or another Laos.

This means that the cold war can be reduced only bit by bit, that agreements must be visibly enforceable.

There is no reason to expect that the sunlight of a better peace is about to burst through the clouds or that we can soon cut back defenses, cut back taxes, and pack up our troubles in Mr. K's kit bag.

Jovial Khrushchev Ends S.F. Stay

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Nikita Khrushchev, who became so charmed with this place that he sounded like its chamber of commerce, left today for the Midwest and the celebrated corn fields of Iowa.

Ahead is an agricultural schedule that should keep the onetime sheepherder in the same gay, peace-talking mood he was in all day yesterday.

In Des Moines he will tour the city, stop at a farm implement plant, speak at a dinner tonight and then tomorrow visit a farm at Coon Rapids, to see how tall that tall corn grows.

Khrushchev is a man of many moods, but yesterday he was jovial and joking. He didn't lose his temper once.

Over and over again he stressed the words peace and friendship.

He said he and President Eisenhower had begun frank discussions in Washington, and he hoped the second round of talks beginning Friday would bring the two countries substantially closer together.

Khrushchev was at his light-hearted best in a farewell dinner winding up a hectic three-day stay on the West Coast.

His audience cheered enthusiastically when he said: "The people of San Francisco have positively charmed us. I felt as if I were among true friends who are thinking the same thoughts as the people in the Soviet Union."

All cities he has visited were good, Khrushchev said, but, ah, San Francisco: "The best of all," he said.

Khrushchev once again put in a plug for his total disarmament plan, and again called for peace treaties with Communist ruled-East Germany.

But there wasn't a threat anywhere in his words.

Once he said of the Soviet system: "We want to build a society under which every man will be a brother of his neighbor, where there will be no enmity, there will be complete equality; as, by the way, was preached by Christ."

"And if you do look into our philosophy you will see that we have taken a lot of Christ's precepts, regarding, for instance, love for one's neighbors and others. Such is our aim."

Earlier he went a step further than Communists usually do when they discuss the United States. The Communist line has been that the American people may want peace but their government doesn't.

But here was Khrushchev saying: "We want to have friendship with the American people and the American government, and I draw no line of distinction between the people and the government of the United States."

Khrushchev was so carried away with his theme that he even declared peace with Los Angeles.

He referred to his blowup there, when he became angry at a speech made by Mayor Norris Poulson, as "the unhappy incident."

"Let us consider it closed," he said.

Earlier yesterday Khrushchev slipped his leash and ran happily through the San Francisco area.

He saw America's gift to culinary culture, the supermarket.

He saw a housing development.

He toured the bay by boat.

He dropped in unexpectedly on the Longshoremen's Union near Fisherman's Wharf.

He visited a plant where electronic equipment is made.

The highlight came when he stopped at a supermarket, and

ONE OF THE BOYS—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev was presented with a longshoreman's cap when he visited International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union headquarters in San Francisco yesterday, and wore it proudly most of the rest of the day. good lunch in the company cafeteria.

"You started by taking me to the dining room," the appreciative Khrushchev told Thomas J. Watson Jr., IBM president. "You fed me so well—give even an animal food and even an animal becomes kinder."

"I had such a big meal and all on credit."

On the way back from San Jose, Khrushchev made his hectic stop at the supermarket, took a drive through San Francisco's Golden Gate Park and paused at a housing development, Forest Knolls, on the slopes of this city's famed twin peaks.

At the impromptu meeting of the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union—it was kicked out of the CIO because of its left wing leanings—Khrushchev said:

"My visit to the United States and the conversation I have with the American people have given me the impression that the people and the leaders of this country want peace just as we in the Soviet Union want peace."

"Thank you, my dear friends, for this welcome."

But Khrushchev had an afterthought:

"What is the main wish I want to convey? Peace! But peace is not enough. I want work and a good wage."

While touring San Francisco Bay with the Coast Guard, Khrushchev said to Cmdr. Benjamin Palmer Clark, of San Rafael, in command of the cutter:

"I'll tell you a secret. The Soviet navy is largely going to concentrate on submarines. We are scrapping 90 per cent of our cruisers. In modern times they are too expensive and of too little use."

All in all, a big amiable day, but it had its gloomy moments.

Stanford Research Institute threw a $10,000 party for Khrushchev, but he passed it by. Three members of the Soviet party went instead.

Institute officials said the costs came from time lost by scientists and from money spent on a 16-foot fence that was to keep people away.

Khrushchev said later he was sorry. And Californians, never shy in praising their state, were pleased with this praise from Khrushchev:

"I cannot embrace all the embraceables in your wonderful state. You know how that is."

He was shown through the Stanford Research Institute, which originally was on Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's itinerary, but was crowded off his schedule.

Dr. A. Y. Markov, described as Khrushchev's personal physician, proposed a joint Soviet-American medical program to help under-privileged nations.

He said such a proposal had been made to the U.S. State Department "and we're still waiting for an answer."

WHAT'S THE PRICE OF APPLES?—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev was intrigued with, among other things, a cellophane bag of apples when he visited a supermarket at San Francisco's Stonestown yesterday. He inquired about the price. (AP Wirephoto)

Pandemonium Reigns As Nikita Pays Surprise Visit To Market

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev made an unexpected visit to a supermarket yesterday afternoon and showed a lively interest in prices and the variety of foods on sale.

He had passed up a scheduled visit this morning to a supermarket in the Marina district, but stopped instead at the Stonestown shopping center when he returned to San Francisco from the International Business Machines plant at San Jose.

The result was a sort of controlled pandemonium.

Guards pushed a path for the chunky Soviet leader through a good-natured mass of shoppers. Police made no effort to clear the store. Khrushchev was quickly surrounded by a throng of curious persons as he moved among the stocks of merchandise.

Khrushchev talked to Mrs. Helen Galvin of San Francisco, who said she spent a month in Leningrad and a month in Moscow in 1933. She said she just happened to be in the store, pushing a shopping cart, when Khrushchev arrived.

The premier asked her if she bought many frozen foods and she replied, "Yes, some. It's a convenience." He picked up a package of frozen salmon from her cart and inspected the label.

Khrushchev walked into the fruit and vegetable department, hefted a cantaloupe and inquired the price and by what measure they were sold (25 cents each).

He stopped to look at eggs and shook hands with shopper R. H. Pizer, who assured him that the eggs (65 cents a dozen for large sizes) were very fresh.

Ike Signs Bill Hiking Saving Bond Interest

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower today signed a bill permitting higher interest payment on government savings bonds. Simultaneously he approved Treasury plans to raise the rate by one-half per cent.

Mosk Warns Grocers On Price Fixing

CORONADO (AP)—Atty. Gen. Stanley Mosk told the California Grocers Assn. today that he will tolerate neither unfair competition nor price fixing in retail marketing.

He said in a prepared address that his administration is dedicated to "breathing life" into both the Unfair Practices Act and the Cartwright Anti-Trust Act, so that "all business shall have an opportunity to succeed under our free enterprise system."

He emphasized, however, that the Unfair Practices Act does not give sellers the right to fix prices under the guise of private enforcement proceedings.

Mosk said his office already has invoked the act to protect Bakersfield grocers from "loss leader warfare" among large independent markets.

He said his office received complaints from numerous grocers, some of whom were suffering crippling financial losses as a result of the price warfare.

The attorney general said an investigation showed that coffee was being sold as a "loss leader" for 25 cents a pound providing the customer made a stipulated minimum purchase of other items.

All but two markets heeded his warning to stop the practice, Mosk said. Injunctive action was taken against those who persisted. He said one has been permanently enjoined. Final disposition is pending against the second retailer.

NEUTRAL TO SETTLE RIVAL UNION FEUDS

Arbitration Plan Approved By AFL-CIO Officials At Meeting In San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The biggest labor union story in years is developing today — and it has nothing to do with the California stopovers of visiting Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

It is an historic agreement between the top leaders of the biennial AFL-CIO convention to submit disputes between rival unions of whatever character to arbitration, putting conflict up to the decision of an outside neutral.

NEW SOLIDARITY

The pact, worked out by federation leaders, demonstrates a new solidarity among labor chiefs in the face of what they view as a mounting businessmen's battle to weaken or exterminate labor organizations.

So convinced are the AFL-CIO leaders that they have found the solution to burying their conflicts and solidifying labor forces, they plan to hold a special convention next year to implement the peace plan.

POLITICAL IMPLICATION

A convention next year could have political implications. Normally the next AFL-CIO convention would be held in 1961.

A closed meeting of the AFL-CIO Executive Council last night ratified in the record time of 20 minutes a plan to solve inter-union strife that has plagued rival organizations for years and drained them of financial resources. There was no discussion.

Basically, the plan requires unions involved in any sort of dispute with a rival—over job right jurisdiction, raids between unions, boycotts of rival union products, or even organizing ethics—to let an outside neutral judge as to which one is right.

Each dispute would be decided on its own merits, without setting a precedent.

Failures to provide such a binding judicial terminal point for frequent union squabbles—causing constant splits among unions for decades—was the root of the trouble that drove labor organizations into rival AFL and CIO camps in 1935.

The peace plan is the real product and binder of the 1955

AFL-CIO merger. Leaders expect it to solidify labor as never before.

It is the result, they said, of the threat implied to other unions in the continuing steel strike and business success in getting Congress to pass the new labor control law.

In other words the unions have decided to close ranks.

Under the plan, due to be okayed at the convention here, a special five-man committee is authorized to proceed to work out details of a disputes solution plan based on the arbitration principle.

The committee is headed by Al Hayes, president of the Machinists Union.

It would be submitted to a special federation convention in 1960 for required constitutional changes.

Rival unionists could then seek to kill the whole idea, but this seems unlikely in view of the solid endorsement given the plan by the council chiefs—comprising the leaders of the former rival CIO and AFL.

A resolution adopted late yesterday by the AFL-CIO delegates resolved to step up union bargaining efforts to raise wages, a step they said is necessary to spread purchasing power and keep the economy going.

Another Teen Gang Slaying In New York

NEW YORK (AP)—A juvenile gang member's effrontery in going into another gang's territory to date a girl is said to have set off the slaying of a 17-year-old Bronx boy on his high school steps.

John Guzman, a Puerto Rican student at Morris High School, was ambushed outside the school yesterday afternoon by eight youths wearing trenchcoats.

Guzman and two companions retreated to the school steps, where Guzman was dropped by a single bullet. He died at a hospital two hours later, after whispering to police: "A blue raincoat—a blue raincoat."

Later police rounded up seven youths and said witnesses identified one, Edward Peres, 17, as the wearer of the blue raincoat. Police said Peres confessed the shooting.

The seven were booked on homicide charges.

The blue coat, police said, apparently was a badge of leadership in a street gang. All the other youths arrested wore light tan coats.

The youths arrested, and one still sought, were described as members of a gang known as the Royal Knights, composed mainly of Puerto Ricans.

Guzman had been a member of another Puerto Rican gang,

DRUM THUMPER — Pretty auburn-haired Joan Adams makes with a tom-tom in approved cheesecake style as she was introduced to newsmen as a new public relations aide for the Washington Redskins professional football team. (AP Wirephoto)

known as the Valiant Crowns.

Behind the fatal shooting, police said, was an argument that grew up after a member of the Royal Knights went into Valiant Crown territory Sunday night to see a girl.

DOCTOR WHO TREATED ABE'S KILLER HONORED

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower has signed into a law a bill honoring Dr. Samuel Alexander Mudd, the doctor imprisoned for giving medical aid to Lincoln's assassin.

The measure provides for the erection of a memorial tablet to Mudd for his service to yellow fever victims at Ft. Jefferson, Fla., during his prison term.

Mudd was imprisoned at Ft. Jefferson for having given aid and a night's lodging to John Wilkes Booth, who shot Lincoln April 14, 1865.

Mudd was granted an unconditional pardon by President Andrew Johnson in 1869 and, according to Rep. Alvin M. Bentley (R-Mich.) historians have since agreed almost unanimously that the Doctor did not know of Lincoln's assassination at the time he aided Booth and thus could not have been guilty of conspiracy.

Ike Signs Bill Hiking Federal Gasoline Tax

WASHINGTON (AP) — Starting Oct. 1, the federal gasoline tax goes up one cent, from three to four cents a gallon. It will help pay for the 41,000-mile interstate highway program.

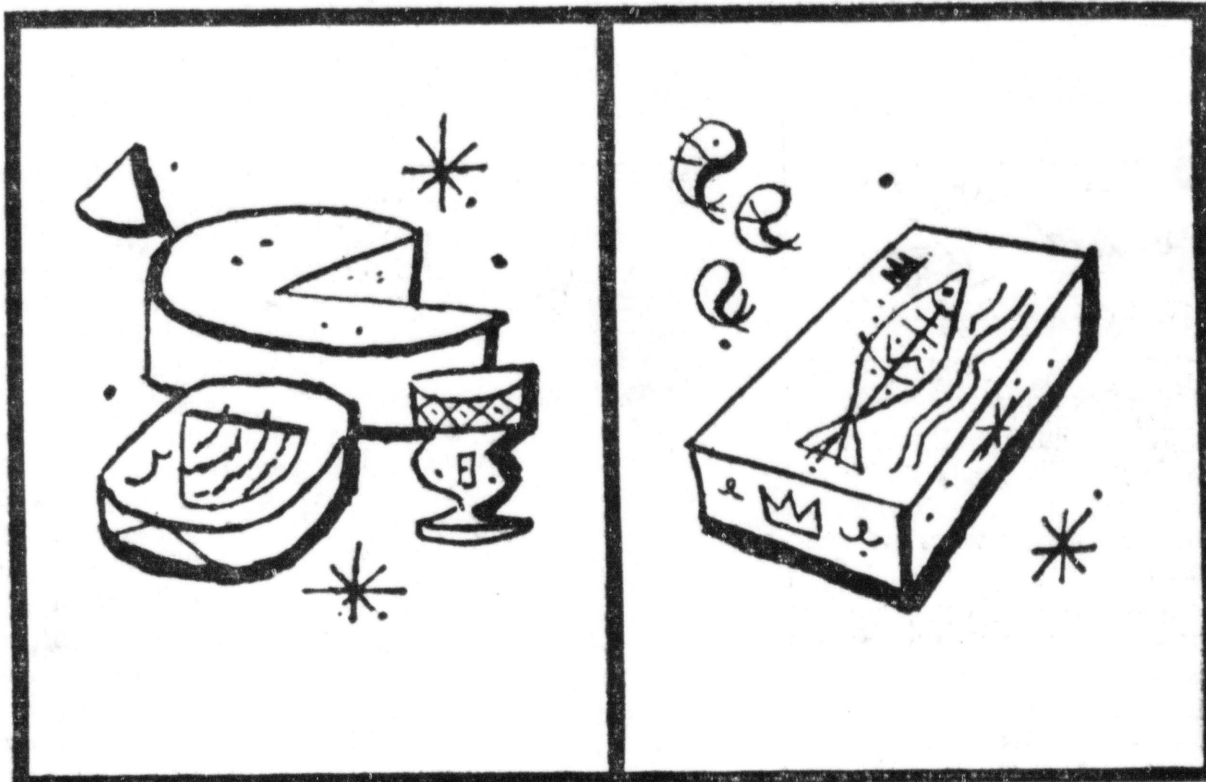

President Eisenhower signed the bill yesterday, but said it did not meet his objective of keeping the highway program on a pay-as-you-go basis.

Eisenhower said he signed it "in order to avoid a serious disruption of the highway program with its attendant adverse effects on state finances, highway contractors and workers and the economy generally."

The increase is expected to bring in a billion dollars from the nation's motorists before its scheduled expiration July 1, 1961. At that time the gas tax is to revert back to three cents a gallon.

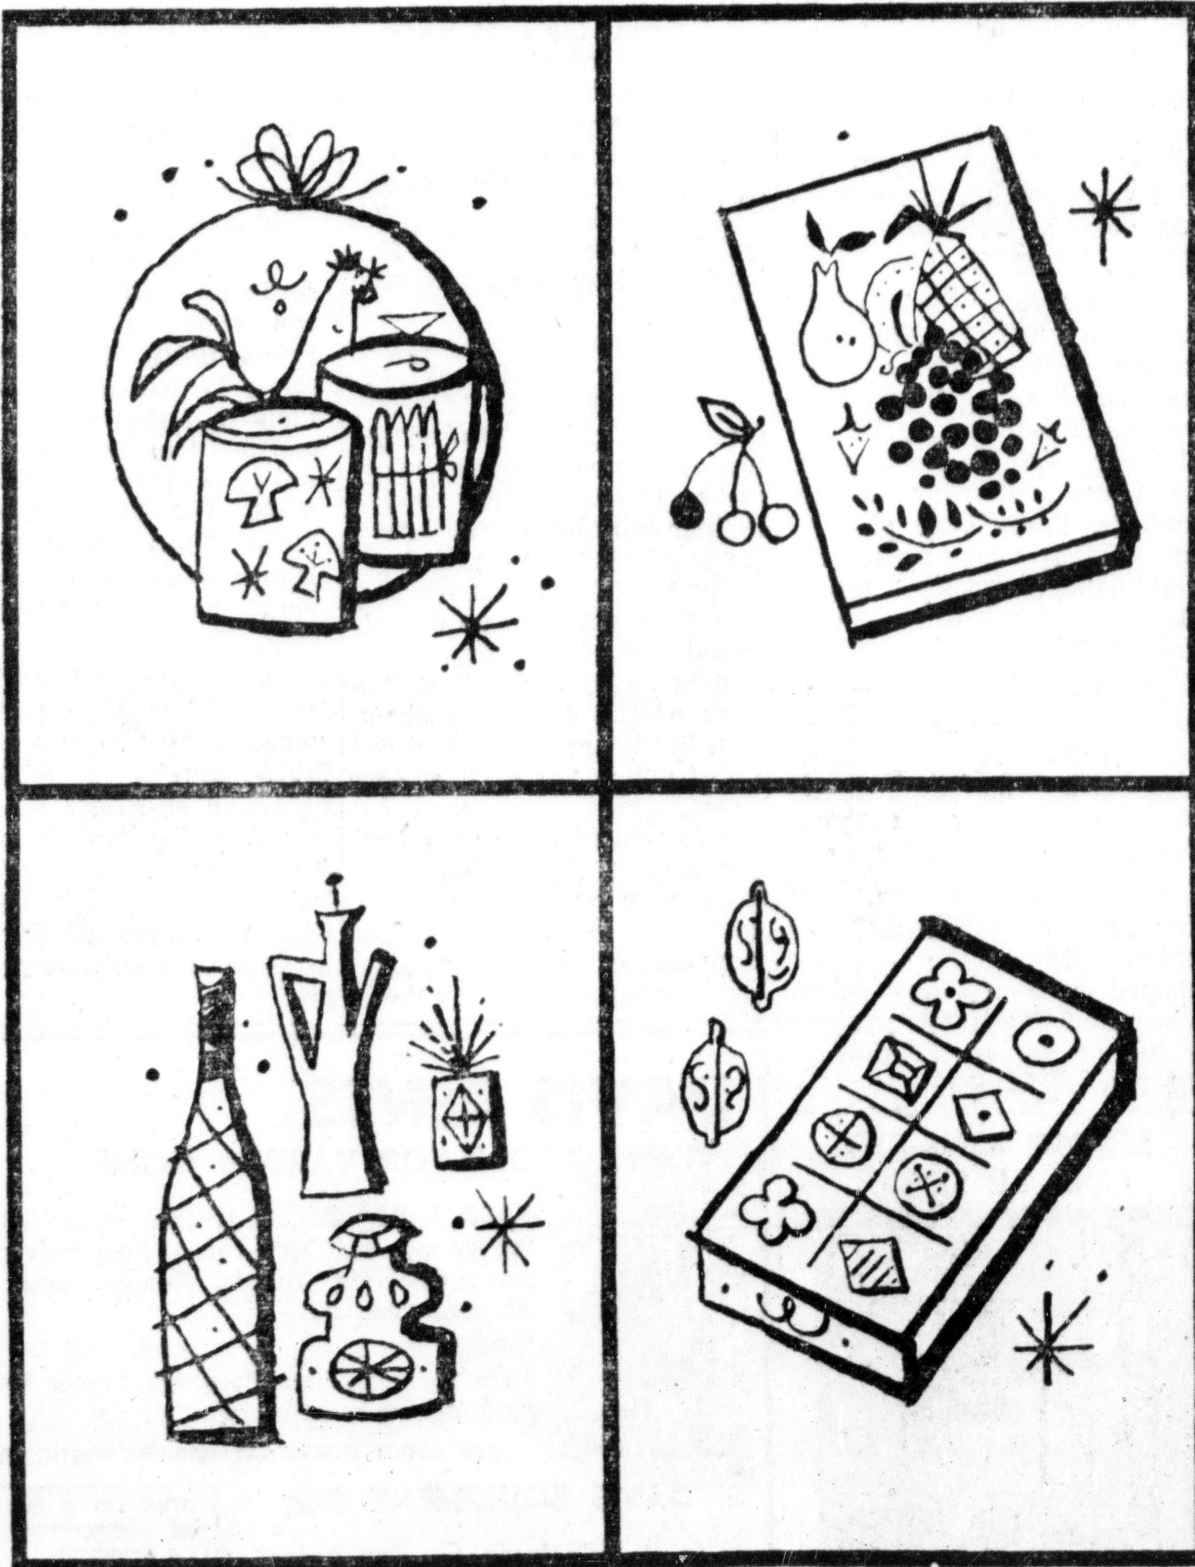

The President had asked for a one and one-half-cent a gallon tax boost.

The compromise provided that after the temporary gasoline tax increase expires, two and one-half billion dollars of other highway-user taxes would be diverted to highway construction for three years. These other taxes at present are going into general government uses.

What Is All This Palaver About Baseball Managers' 'Strategy'?

The 1959 National League pennant race seems to have everybody upset.

And many folks are really confused to a great extent by the radio blurps and the young sport writers who keep bearing down on the strategy end of the game.

I'd like to know what the heck strategy means in baseball.

When a southpaw pitcher is in the box and is about to be faced by a southpaw hitter, does it require strategy to remove the southpaw and put in a righthand hitter.

Or, if you have a hard hitter who is slow of foot, and the hard hitter gets a single, does it require deep strategy to get him out of the game and put in a pinch runner?

WHEN I THINK of strategy, I think of war stories and detective magazines and mystery stories. I do not think strategy has any place in a big league ball game.

When Manager Bill Rigney of the SF Giants goes out to talk to his pitcher and stays longer than he should, would you call that strategy or would you just say Rig is stalling to get his relief pitcher warmed up?

Would you say Rigney was a strategist because he lifted Johnny Antonelli, his star pitcher, when Johnny A. could not get anyone out?

I'VE HEARD the boys screaming over the radio about what strategy Rig is going to use.

"It looks like Rig will replace O'Connell by sending in Dusty Rhodes to bat for him, and then strengthen his defense by shifting Cepeda to first base and sending Jackie Brandt to the outfield," the radio guys say.

And the very next moment that is what Rigney does.

What strategy is there in that, when everybody in the ball park is waiting for Rigney to do that very thing?

Baseball is a game of percentages and the manager who can't figure out percentages shouldn't be in a major league.

There is a timeliness in removing pitchers that sometimes proves highly successful. They call that strategy instead of good judgment.

WHEN A MANAGER relieves one pitcher for another, he doesn't rate himself a strategist. He knows almost anyone in the bleachers would do the same thing under the same circumstances.

So, as the Giants, Braves and Warren Spahn has won 20 again and Milwaukee has barreled into a tie for the National League lead. But don't kid yourself. The Braves' big guy is Ed Mathews.

It was Mathews, belting five home runs in four games for a share of the major league lead with 43, who got the job done. The left-handed slugger drove in five runs last night with a pair of homers for an 8-6 decision over the Pirates at Pittsburgh that made Warren The Wonder a 20-game winner for the 10th time in a 15-year career.

Coach Burns Over Rams' Rough Play

Los Angeles Coach Sid Gillman — who doesn't pull his punches — doesn't want any more thrown by his rambunctious Rams.

Infuriated by the numerous penalties assessed against his operatives as they edged Philadelphia 31-28 in a weekend National Football League exhibition, Gillman tersely cautioned his charges yesterday against any repetition of the rough-house tactics that marked the contest.

Gillman said he didn't know what set off the fireworks but "that kind of stuff must be eliminated. We can't win games with severe penalties."

There weren't any pitched battles during the game, but Ram linebacker Les Richter and Eagle linebacker Bob Pelligrini had quite a go at each other.

After drawing one personal foul, Richter, 248 pounds, got into a brawl with Pelligrini, 235. It was quickly broken up. But as soon as the game ended, the angered Pelligrini jumped Richter and precipitated a rousing free-for-all.

The Rams lost defensive back Don Burrough, whom officials tossed out of the fray.

Meanwhile, Coach Weeb Ewbank of the defending champion Baltimore Colts dismissed his team's two consecutive losses.

"We wanted to win the first one against the College All-Stars, play our rookies in the next three and polish the first team the last two. And we did," he asserted.

Chisox Play Biggest Game In 40 Years

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

This is it. The Chicago White Sox are at Cleveland tonight for one last game with the Indians, already living on borrowed time. One last game for the American League pennant.

Sure, the White Sox have a 3½-game lead with three games remaining after tonight. But this is one that can do it, the one that can put an end to those 40 fruitless years since their last pennant.

COULD CLINCH

A victory at Cleveland clinches it for the White Sox. A loss leaves 'em hanging. Then they'll have to win two of those last three games—all at Detroit against the Tigers, who took two of three at Chicago last weekend—to be safe.

They could lose tonight and still make it, of course. They can do it by winning just one of their last three should Cleveland drop one of its remaining four—all with Kansas City. And they can do it by not winning any—if the Indians drop two to the A's.

But who's to say the Indians will lose any if they put this one away tonight?

FOR FLAG

It's one game for the pennant. And Chicago's pitching job goes to Early Wynn, the Old Man who's been getting the job done all season, winning 20 and losing but 10.

Joe Gordon, the Indians' lame duck manager who could become a living martyr if he pulls out the flag, has set up youngster Jim Perry (12-9) for this one. Gordon, pestered into a resignation by General Manager Frank Lane, shuffled his rotation a bit to bring the right-handed rookie against the White Sox with three days rest.

The White Sox have won 14 of 21 with Cleveland this season. And they're 8-2 at Cleveland, where they hung the Indians up to dry by sweeping a four-game series last month.

Pitching has been the White Sox' answer for Cleveland's power. When the pitching slipped, the Indians shook loose from the noose, winning a three-game set at Chicago 2-1 two weeks ago.

Marin College Tars Win Grid Opener, 18-14

The College of Marin Tars defeated the Cal Aggies 18-14 last night at Davis in their football season opener.

The Aggies opened the scoring early in the first quarter and ran over a two-point conversion to lead 8-0.

Midway in the second quarter, Marin on a sustained drive reached the Aggie 15-yard line. Then Tar right halfback Chuck Stuart on an off-tackle slant with beautiful downfield blocking scooted into the end zone. Luther Wallace, fullback, fell inches short of the goal line on an attempted two-point conversion run and the Tars still trailed, 8-6.

SAME PLAY

Early in the third quarter, another sustained drive culminated in another Stuart touchdown on the same off-tackle play from three yards out. Ed Clahan tried a conversion kick which was blocked and the Tars led 12-8.

Early in the final period, a 40-yard run by Marty Medin to the Aggie 8-yard line set up the final Tar TD, with Medin scoring after two short gains on ground plays. Clahan's kick was blocked again and the Tars led 18-8.

With a minute and a half left, a desperation pass by the Aggies put them on the Marin three and a ground play scored to make it 18-14. The Aggies' attempt to run for two points netted a 2-yard loss.

FINE SHOWING

Coach Harry Pieper of the Marin eleven said today he was very pleased with his club's first-game effort. Only one fumble occurred and Pieper said the team's offensive timing was excellent for the opening game. The defense also showed mid-season form, he declared.

The Tars used a unit substitution set-up and both units sparked, the coach said.

The game was postponed from last Friday night because of the Friday rainstorm. The Tars' next game is Saturday night in Monterey against Monterey Peninsula College.

Conley Signs Twice

BOSTON (AP)—Gene Conley signed two contracts for 1960 yesterday—one with the Philadelphia Phillies and one with the Boston Celtics of the National Basketball Assn.

Dodgers Confident In Stretch

ST. LOUIS (AP)—His Dodgers are facing old nemesis Larry Jackson tonight, but Los Angeles Manager Walt Alston admits he's confident of his club's pennant chance because "you have to be—the players make you feel that way."

Jackson's name might as well be Stonewall to the Dodgers, although he is only a .500 pitcher for his career and 13-13 this season. The St. Louis Cardinal right-hander owns a 12-5 lifetime mark against the Dodgers.

Alston nominated strikeout ace Sandy Koufax (8-6) to face Jackson in the opener of a two-game set with his club in a first place tie with Milwaukee in the fantastic National League pennant chase.

Koufax has never finished a game against the Red Birds, but that doesn't bother Alston. If it bothers Koufax or any of the other Dodger players, they are hiding it well.

The Dodgers exuded confidence as they worked out here yesterday and watched Chicago blast the Cardinals 12-3 last night.

Alston, a former school teacher never given to rash statements, can't hide his pleasure over his club's amazing climb from seventh place last season to top contention this year.

The club has not one hitter among the league's elite and no 20-game winners but has shown great team effort and a deep, if unpredictable, pitching staff.

"We have no individual star," Alston said, "but I think the players were a little bit ashamed of last season and wanted to show they're better."

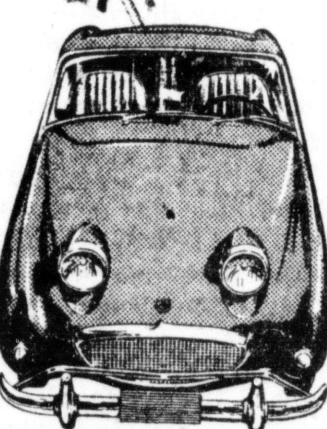

Veterans Duke Snider, Gil Hodges and Carl Furillo calm the club's younger players and steady the club. The club has hit 140 homers compared to 201 for the 1955 world champs.

Pace May Be Placed On Injured List

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The San Francisco 49ers, who open their National Football League campaign here Sunday against Philadelphia, still must reduce their roster by one.

Halfback Jim Pace, the Michigan All-America now in his second season with the pros, will test his injured knee today. If it doesn't hold up, he may be placed on the injured reserve list and be out for the season.

The 49ers released rookie halfback Paul Lowe of Oregon State on waivers yesterday to reduce the squad to 37 — 28 veterans and nine rookies.

HANLEY'S REPORT

Spencer 'Choke' Charge Not True

By JACK HANLEY (I-J Correspondent)

CHICAGO—There are harsh critics who are saying that the Giants tightened up, choked and swallowed the olive when they let the Dodgers beat them three straight in the pennant drive during the weekend.

"They couldn't stand the pressure when the blue chips were on the table," we heard one severely critical customer saying as he filed out of Seals Stadium with the rest of the fans for the last time.

This fellow was particularly cynical about Daryl Spencer's error of a possible DP ball with one out and the bags loaded in the seventh inning of the middle game. All five winning Dodger runs were scored in that inning.

"Nobody can ever tell me different," the hard-headed customer insisted. "It was a double play ball if there ever was one."

Then, warming to his subject, he mentioned Spencer's second error of the series. This one was in the ninth inning of the final Sunday afternoon game. He made no mention of the fact that the Dodgers on clean hits already had pushed three markers across in the ninth before the error.

HE ALSO had a few complimentary words to say about Hobie Landrith's error in the first game, the first and only time Landrith ever returned a toss to the pitcher over his head, allowing a run to come in.

We suppose that is what makes baseball fans—the right to voice their criticisms in such positive and omniscient manner. However, if we were on trial we would hate to have such harsh customers on the jury.

ONE BIT of information we do know about Spencer is that he shouldn't even be playing. If he were the kind of guy who tightened up, he would have sat it out on the sidelines with his wrenched left knee. There are more bandages around it than Egyptians used on their mummies.

Spencer is a fighting ball player. One of the chief reasons the Giants still have a chance to win the pennant although it now is a slim one. The fellow who first called Spencer the atomic glue of the Giant infield all season long isn't a bit wrong.

And insofar as that critical customer's ripping of Landrith is concerned, he just doesn't know Hobie. Or, for that matter, he doesn't know too much about baseball.

Landrith's error did let a run in but it made no difference in the ultimate outcome of that first game in the Giant-Dodger series.

Roger Craig was the big difference in the first game, notwithstanding Maury Wills' continued hitting streak.

CRAIG checked the Giants on six hits, just as Don Drysdale, Larry Sherry and Danny McDevitt did in the second game, and Johnny Podres with the aid of Sherry again plus assists from Sandy Koufax and Clem Labine did in the final game.

Six hits in each game. Six hits are enough to win a lot of ball games but not when they are scattered in the manner the Dodger pitchers kept them separated.

All of this chit chat soon will be relegated to the hot stove league but, as has been said many times in the past, it won't change the outcome of those three ball games.

San Rafael Vs. Marin In MCAL Grid Opener

The opening league game will mark the head coaching debut of Dick Read at San Rafael. A former Santa Rosa star, Read comes to Marin from St. Mary's of Berkeley, replacing Sam DeVito.

Parched Yosemite Area Welcomes Weekend Storms

YOSEMITE (P)—A mid-September blizzard in high country and rain in the valley evoked smiles from residents of the parched Yosemite National Park over the weekend.

Waterfalls that have been dry since mid-summer roared anew. Park officials said the falls will continue to attract visitors for at least two weeks—longer if normal rainfalls occurs.

A blizzard at Tioga Pass dropped up to 18 inches of snow and closed the roadway for a full day—the earliest on record. A new rainfall mark of more than four inches was set in the valley.

Apples are believed to have originated in Asia near the Caspian Sea.

Wildcats Boast 18 Veteran Gridders

By GLENN BECKER

A new split-T offense will be displayed by the Marin Catholic Wildcats this season. Coach Mike Davlin, after losing star tailback John Boccabella by graduation, decided to junk the single-wing in favor of the grind-em-out split-T.

Davlin welcomed back 18 lettermen Sept. 8, the most in the new Marin County Athletic League. He says that he has seen "the best competition for starting spots in my four years at Marin Catholic."

Although a little shy of heft in the line, the Wildcats' fine depth give them hopes of improving their 1958 record of 4-4-1. Coach Davlin has switched former first-string fullback Gary Bartolotti to right end, in hopes of getting some good blocking at the flank. To replace Bartolotti at fullback, Davlin has Jerry Crow, a junior, and Blake Rodgers, a senior who shared the fullback post last year.

Heaviest man on the current first team is senior right tackle Pete Radieve at 210 pounds. Backing him up is Jack Rademann, 6-foot-1 and Merchants Edge Old-Stars In M.V.

Mill Valley Merchants ended their season on a happy note Sunday when they defeated the Mill Valley "Old-Stars" 7-6 in the annual Oldtimers Day game.

Merchant pitcher Bill Bowen went the distance, scattering five hits. Steve Retter, Gary Conwell and Lorin Buchholz each got a single and a triple for the Merchants.

225. From end to end MC lines up like this: RE—Bartolotti, 6-0, 190; RT—Radieve, 6-0, 210; RG—Tony Guisti, 6-0, 185; C—Pat Casey, 5-10, 195; LG—Rich Quinn, 5-10, 165; LT—Tom Basile, 5-10, 190; LE—Frank Dolman, 5-11, 175. All but Dolman are lettermen.

Coach Davlin's new offense will be directed by quarterback Ron Blum, whose size, 6 feet and 145 pounds, is typical of the light Wildcat backfield. The running backs, besides Crow at fullback, are halfbacks Mike McGraw, 5-7 and 155, and Jack Hendrickson, 5-10 and 155. Davlin is especially high on Hendrickson, describing him as "a scooter who can really go." He is the only non-letterman in the backfield.

Still with good chances to wrest away from one of these four a starting backfield spot are three second-string backs. They are fullback Rodgers and halfbacks Bob McMullin and Larry Selna, a big 185-pound senior.

Top subs in the line are tackles Jack Rademann and Jim Campagna, a big one at 6-2 and 195. Others are ends Tom O'Doul and Rich Ongaro, and guard Ron Denman.

Coach Davlin sees a two-team race between Tamalpais and Redwood, with San Rafael a step behind. His Wildcats should finish third or fourth, and perhaps even higher with luck.

PLANS AWAITED

Belvedere Tidelands Project Stand Pends

The Belvedere Planning Commission last night decided to withhold a final recommendation on the proposed tidelands waterfront home development until a preliminary plan is filed.

David Allen and Russell Rice, representatives of Belvedere Properties, Inc., said they expect to file their preliminary plans for the luxurious home development on the western beach of Belvedere Island at the November meeting of the commission.

The law requires that the planning commission take action within 30 days of the filing date, according to commission Chairman George Goddard.

Discussion last night centered around the three sets of items drawn up by the commission in a memorandum following the preceding meeting and four points brought up by property owners objecting to the development.

The latter were contained in a letter given to the commission by Stephen Garin, 29 Belvedere avenue. The letter requested the commission include among their recommendations that (1) data be obtained on the length of piling for each lot; (2) competent geological studies be obtained on the stability of the cliff; (3) the developer provide bonded protection for adjoining property owners in case of slides; (4) a bulkhead line be established between the fill and the water.

The commission memorandum divided the project into three phases: ordinances, engineering and planning. Subjects covered were establishments of the legality of tidewater lots, width of the roads, number of turn-arounds, establishment of the access road as a through street or as a cul-de-sac, storm drains, recreational areas, sewage facilities, placement of intersections and slide danger.

Main areas of disagreement between the commission and the developers were on amount of usable land surrounding the tidelands lots, provision of recreational area and who would maintain the rip-rap area.

Chairman Goddard felt that 25 feet of fill should be on each lot, with Rice contending that "our prospective buyers do not want to garden, they just want a few planters on the deck to take care of."

"Belvedere has plenty of public area for recreational development. . . . This is not the area for a public beach," Rice said. The Belvedere Land Co. has, over the years, donated much land to the city for recreational use, he pointed out. Commissioner Thomas L. Wark agreed with Rice but Commissioner Joseph Marshall said he would like to see recreational space provided for small children.

The question of who would maintain the rip-rap and the street was finally left up to the city council after discussion by both sides.

Speakers from the 20 spectators at the meeting were concerned with storm damage to the pilings of the homes and traffic control on San Rafael avenue, which would lead into the access beach road.

The only sharp exchange of words during the evening came when Goddard said the 4,000-foot length of road should be filled in sections, in case a contingency prevented the project from being completed.

"I hope you can appreciate that this is private property," Rice said.

Wark reminded the commission that "they can do what they want with the beach they own it!"

Public Hearing On School Merger Plan Slated Tonight

A Public hearing on the proposed unification of the Novato and San Jose school districts will be held tonight at 8 o'clock at the regular meeting of the governing board of the Novato district in the administration office at 1015 Seventh street. Earl Marshall, chairman of the Novato board, will preside at the meeting, which will also discuss the possibility of a survey of the district program and building needs.

Also on the agenda are confirmation of the appointment of Elaine Hale as typist-clerk and authorization of adult education classes.

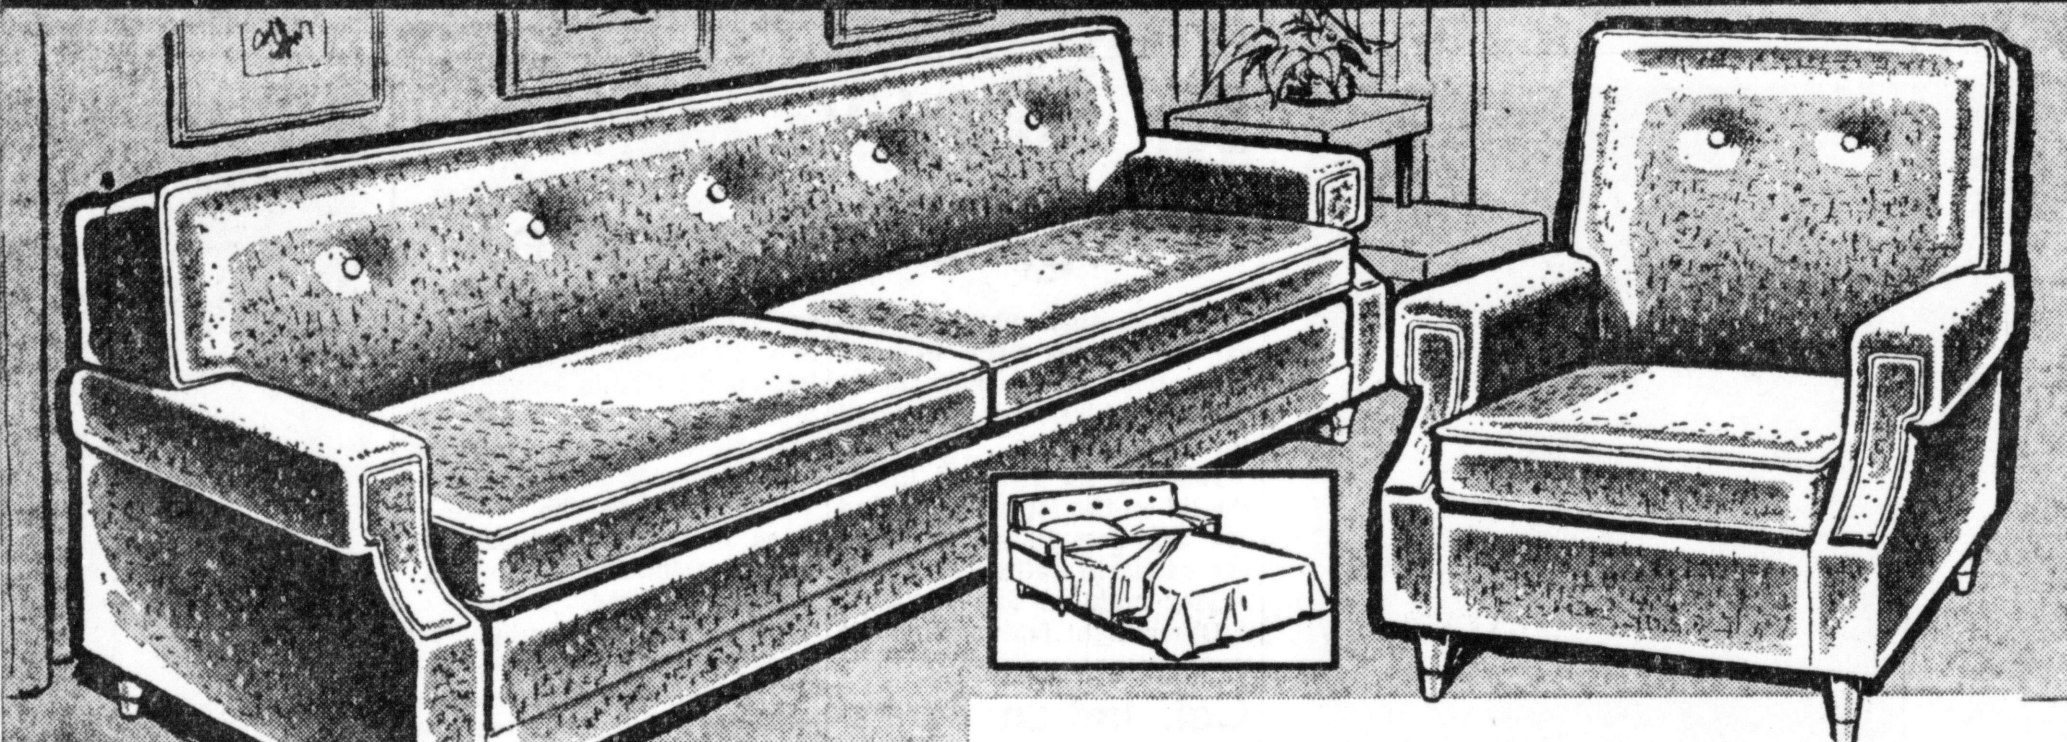

The merger of the two districts is scheduled for a public vote on Sept. 29. The measure came before the voters last November, when it passed in the Novato district but failed in San Jose.

FASHION-LUNCHEON

'The French Line' Brilliant Showing

Sophisticated costumes, gorgeous fabrics, rich furs accented by sparkling jewelry made "The French Line," the recent fashion luncheon of the Sisterhood of the Marin Jewish Community Center an exciting adventure. The showing, with Monique Benoit, San Francisco newspaper columnist, as the commentator preceded the luncheon at the center.

The show was opened with custom designs, individually created for each model by the French couturiere, Jacqueline de Bray, and luxurious furs. Mrs. Robert Tobias' costume, a turquoise brocade jacket and black satin pants, showed the Oriental influence. Mrs. Fred Pill wore a cerulean mink stole with a green organza and satin dress. Wide collared was the white fox coat modeled by Mrs. Bernard Blumenthal and in contrast was the gold brocade gown of Mrs. Maurice Koch.

A white tailored blouse accented the billowy red and white check shirt of Mrs. Mervyn Shenson. Mrs. Kurt Rosenthal wore a sleeveless "horse-blanket" coat over a black jersey. Stunning was Mrs. Russell Shatz in a tailored gray suit of light wool. Over a muted blue and black print dress, Mrs. John Levy wore a full length mink coat. Mrs. Joseph Land modeled several smart outfits and Mrs. Evan Goldenberg appeared in a black embroidered mouseline de soie gown, the long waist bloused and the skirt slim. Mrs. Martin Brownstein wore a slit skirted dress. The style review was concluded with the showing of negligees.

John Leipsic, TV producer, master of ceremonies, was introduced by Mrs. Bernard L. Savin, president of the Sisterhood. The luncheon tables were centered by little aquamarine boats, flying the French flag, and sparkling with sequins and jewels.

Honored guests seated at Mrs. Savin's table were the show commentator, the master of ceremonies, also Mayor John McInnis of San Rafael, and his wife, Louis Maier, new director of the Jewish Community Center, and his wife; Mrs. Morton Hoffman, wife of Rabbi Hoffman; and Florence Donnelly, society and women's page editor of the Independent-Journal. Unusual specimens of driftwood, ranging from large patio size to small pieces suitable for indoor arrangements, remarkable ornamental rocks and mountain lichens, are among the items to be sold at Sunny Hills 60th annual Grape Festival on Saturday, Oct. 3, by the Redwood Guild of Mill Valley.

Recent luncheon work parties have been held by Mesdames Jay Chilton, chairman of rocks and pinecones, and Harry Fletcher, chairman of driftwood.

SECOND SECTION Independent-Journal, Tuesday, Sept. 22, 1959 13

DECOR OF WINE TASTING PARTY WILL FEATURE TWO COLLECTIONS

German decanters 200 years old and nineteenth century bottled American wine will be incorporated into the decor of the wine-tasting party which Marin Aid to Retarded Children will hold Sunday at the Fairhills home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wilsey, 65 Treehaven drive, San Rafael.

Decorations of the outdoor serving areas, where refreshments of a more modern vintage will be poured, will be in the hands of Mrs. Louis A. Yuvan, 20 Fairhills avenue, San Rafael. She is on the committee assisting Mrs. Mozart Kaufman, Kent Woodlands, and Dante Bagnani, San Rafael, co-chairman of the party.

The old American wine in its decorative containers comes from Mr. Bagnani's collection. The German bottles, of crystal and silver, belong to Mrs. Marvin Good, Novato, president of MARC.

Mrs. Good has charge of awards for the party; Mrs. Richard St. John, Terra Linda, of printing, and Mrs. John McKeever, San Rafael, of invitations. The public is invited to this, MARC's only fund-raising event of the year.

The organization, a United Fund agency, aims to increase and improve facilities which will help the mentally retarded become useful members of society. It seeks to foster public understanding of retardation, and encourage research into its cause and prevention.

In addition to the nursery school and summer recreation program it now conducts, MARC hopes to find additional revenue to start a sheltered workshop for young adults.

Classes In Driving Offered At The 'Y'

It's opportunity week—all week — throughout Marin County—for both men and women and teen-agers, who want to widen their horizons, learn new skills and make new friends. The reason is that YWCA sponsored classes that offer something special for everybody are starting up this week all over the county.

For instance—if you're a teen-ager of 16 or over who wants to be in a position to assure Mom and Dad you do know how to drive safely, but you aren't eligible for Driver Education through the Public Schools—try the YWCA! Both boys and girls are enrolling in the YWCA driving class. First session begins today at the San Rafael High School at 4 p.m. For 13 to 18 year-old boys and girls, teen-age golf lessons begin Thursday (September 24) at Gallinas Driving Range. You'll get instruction in grip, stance, all woods, irons and development of swing.

For girls only, a "Princess Charming" class opens Thursday at San Rafael High School at 3:30 p.m. It's designed for girls who want to grow up gracefully, to be able to plan their wardrobes, and to know the secrets of grooming, artful makeup and hair styling, posture, poise and social graces. Instructor is Miss Patricia Wilson, a graduate of the Barbizon School of Charm in New York.

Miss Williamson also will open a class for women, Thursday evening, at 7:30 p.m. at San Rafael High School. Called "Help Yourself," it's a course in personal inventory. It covers fashions, makeup, hair styles, makeup, hair styles, diction, posture and social graces.

Many classes beginning this week are open to men, too; for instance, ballroom dancing, basic bridge, golf, flying, and recorder (ancient flute). For details on these and many other courses now beginning, write to YWCA at 1010 B Street, San Rafael.

SYMPHONY

'Down Beat' Tea Kicks Off Drive

Mrs. Norman B. Livermore's hilltop home in Ross was the setting for the recent Down Beat Tea heralding the start of the month-long membership drive for the Symphony Guild of Marin.

Seventy-five guests were greeted by Mesdames Robert L. Schultz, guild president, and William Pemberton and Juan Hayes, co-chairmen for the drive.

Mrs. Schultz presented last year's membership chairman, Mrs. Berrien Anderson, who introduced past presidents Mesdames Jean Mattos Maguire, Harrison Leppo, and John Lesoine. Mrs. John McCarthy was unable to be present.

After reviewing highlights of the Symphony Guild's seven previous seasons, Mrs. Anderson handed over the jeweled baton to Mrs. Pemberton and Mrs. Hayes, thus symbolizing a "Down Beat" for this year's drive.

The business drive was held during August, and Mrs. Hayes gave details concerning its organization and expressed gratification at the response, which tops that of last year.

Information concerning the house-to-house campaign was furnished by Mrs. Pemberton, who announced that renewal subscriptions have already been received and that 578 letters have gone out to prospective members.

She then introduced area chairmen Mesdames William Ballard, Southern Marin; Lois Angland, Mill Valley; Edgar Ross and Roy Starbird, Sausalito; George Stephens, Belvedere; John Toole, Central Marin; G. E. French and Max Thelen, San Rafael; Eugene Yates, Terra Linda; Woodward Malone and Fred Babo, Novato; Roy Johnston Jr., Marinwood; Donald Dunn and Robert Bunney, Santa Venetia. Mrs. Richard Hughes was introduced as chairman of music for minors.

Throughout the membership drive, which will close Oct. 14, the Guild is maintaining an office in the Mill Valley Furniture Shop, 59 Throckmorton avenue.

In closing Mrs. Schultz stressed the fact that the Guild, eager to create public understanding of its aims and activities, is making this year a "year of understanding" and has adopted a slogan for the drive of "Each One Reach One."

Mrs. Dale Cheney will be her sister's matron of honor, and Katherine Carrillo, Jeanne Huffstutter, and Mrs. Cecil Boyd, sister of the future bridegroom, will be bridesmaids. James McGowan will be best man and Dale Cheney, Ray Guagliano and Bob Warne will usher.

The couple plans to be married in Christ Episcopal Church in Sausalito this fall.

Kay Eubanks Speaks At Zontas' Meeting

An honor to Kay Eubanks and reflected distinction to the Zonta Club of Marin County of which she is a member, was her selection as one of six florists in the United States to present new ideas at a Design School conducted at the convention of Florists' Telegraph Delivery Association in Los Angeles.

The appointment was made at the headquarters in Detroit. The association is operated and controlled by the florists who belong to it.

Mrs. Eubanks, who is also district representative of this organization, with territory from Monterey to Crescent City, told of her experiences at the convention at the recent luncheon meeting of the Zonta Club. She said that there are 92 districts in the United States, and it is the duty of the district representative to pass on the credentials of florists who apply for membership.

The speaker said that the Design School includes an all day workshop, where original ideas are presented. As the date of the convention coincided with Nisei week in Los Angeles, the decorations were in the Oriental theme, and the convention opened with 42 little Japanese boys and girls from a private musical school presenting the Cherry Blossom ritual with singing and dancing. Twelve hundred delegates attended the Design School, all six designers being on the stage at the same time.

Mrs. Courtland Benites, president, presided at the Zonta luncheon and announced that the members will again assist in staffing the gates at the Grape Festival on Saturday, October 3. ## Luncheon To Honor Marin Volunteers

Indian Summer, the golden days of fall and fashion, and one of the most delightful seasons of Marin, will be enjoyed at the popular Fashion Focus luncheons at Rickie's in a special autumn series of Tuesday luncheons.

To best appreciate Marin's autumn loveliness and enjoy the changing color of the surrounding hillside, Fashion Focus will lunch around the pool and on the lanai; that is until the weather man interferes. Then the luncheon and fashion parade will shift inside to the Garden and Marinoma rooms.

Claret red, sherried orange, burgundy and champagne will be the sparkling color tones for the "Country Vintage of '59." Tuesday's first Indian Summer luncheon in the Fashion Focus series. Vintage hues in casual sportswear, town wear and late-day looks will rival the fall beauty of Sonoma and Napa county vineyards as a smart Marin women's shop introduces its fall fashions.

Returning as the honored group of the week will be the Marin Volunteers, a group of enthusiastic, dedicated young women, working countywide for the Senior Citizens, and at the moment very busy with their newest venture, Trade Whims, the bargain shop in the Senior Citizens Center.

Some of Marin's most experienced and attractive models, including several members of the newly formed Mannequins League of Marin, will be modeling the rich, vibrant wine colors appropriate for country living or city going.

A century old wine press, intriguing folders suggesting how California wines add spice and zest to the simplest or most elegant dishes, baskets of grapes and autumn decor will be the Indian Summer decor suggesting the Country Vintage.

The public is cordially invited to the popular Tuesday series with reservations made by calling Rickie's.

Guild Hears Talk By Engineer

An arm chair voyage to unfamiliar parts of the world was the pleasant experience of members and guests of St. Stephen's Guild at their meeting recently at the Belvedere home of Mrs. Robert E. Crockett.

Conducting the trip through Thailand, Burma, Pakistan and Israel by means of slides and commentary was Mr. Morton Lieberman, consulting engineer on water resources and Belvedere resident.

To be closer to their children the Liebermans have come to Marin County from Princeton, N.J., where he had been requested to make the survey of water resources of the state. They consider Belvedere one of the most beautiful places they have ever lived.

During 1956 he was asked by the government of Thailand to look for water. Wells had been drilled to only 20 feet and produced a soapy type water. By using American equipment, and with the support of the American government, wells were drilled to 40 feet producing clear spring water. The project was turned over to the Thai Navy and Mrs. Lieberman went on to Burma.

From 1957 to 1959 he was a consultant to the Burmese government. While there an important dam broke and Mr. Lieberman helped rebuild it. During the business meeting over which president Mrs. E. G. Weed presided, the guild discussed their annual ball scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 10 at the Corinthian Yacht Club. Continental Capers is the name chosen for the affair and Mrs. Robert Wineman is general chairman.

Presiding at the coffee tables for the morning meeting were Mesdames Fred Palmer and David Mushet who is Mrs. Crockett's daughter. Assisting with the arrangements were Mesdames James Michael, Evan Pugh and John Mueller.

400 Guests Attend Dance On Saturday

The 400 guests at Saturday night's annual Starlight Dinner Dance given by the Tom Thumb chapter of the Children's Home Society stepped through the doors of the Meadow Club into a wonderland of twinkling silver stars suspended from the ballroom ceilings.

White pillars flanked the entranceways into the foyer and the main dance floor. The lighting reflected off the myriad of stars hung on the ceilings and transformed the spacious rooms into a glittering silver scene.

Chapter president Joyce Graham did a stint at the check-in tables, assisted by husband Roger. She wore a bouffant white brocade dress. Vice-president Jane Collins combined her supervisory duties with a whirl on the dance floor with husband James. Her full-skirted chiffon was in a pale lilac shade.

Competing with the orchestra and turned on full volume during the intermissions was the lobby radio... with Giant rosters huddled close the entire time. Several transistor radios were in evidence. Fred Dupuis who listened to the game for the entire evening, was followed by a coterie of Giant fans as he walked through the crowd with his pocket-size radio. Wife Marybelle, her flaming red hair set off by an emerald green dress, finally danced with him after the game was over.

THE DECOR

Plaudits for the striking decorations going to Shirley Esplin, who chairmanned the committee that spent all day setting up the decor. Terrace tables were crowded during the evening. Among those seen gaily chatting during the intermissions were Victor and Shirley Banks, Chuck and Shirley Pruett, she in an orange chiffon, Dorothy Olson in a pale green chiffon with husband Harold, Pat and George Lagier, and Mike and DeeDee Abramson.

Early arrivals were Charlotte and Joe Cranmer with a large group of guests that included Henry and Mary Jo Broderick. Among those seen on the dance floor were Mary and Bill Slater, she in a black and white print, Pat and Gerry Jampol.

Children Disobedient? Here Are Tips For Harassed Parents

Do your children disobey? Are there things you can't make them do? Of course, here are some examples.

Dinner is ready, so you call them in. They're playing. They don't want to come in. So they keep on playing. They ignore you as long as they dare. Right? You try to treat your youngsters equally. No favorites. But your son decides you've given a larger piece of cake to your daughter than he got. An argument starts. The walls reverberate.

It is bedtime. You tell the kids to turn off the TV and get to bed. Ten minutes later they're still staring at the TV screen.

You want a neat house. You tell your children to pick up and put away their clothes. You keep telling them, year in and year out. But their rooms still are in a mess. You tell them to make their beds. But they often stay unmade.

In other words, your youngsters are human. So are you. I hope you won't give up. Your children need to learn to obey. They're born savages. You must civilize them. But you can't expect sudden conformity.

Keep a few jumps ahead of them. Change tactics from time to time. Be fair. Try to be consistent. Use reasonable rewards. Punish when necessary. Use the mildest punishments which will teach the needed lessons.

Eventually you'll win. About the time they finish high school they'll start doing the things you want them to do. They'll take over, and you can relax. Meantime, keep plugging.

(Q)—"Is it true that high schools now want students to take four years of a modern language? Not two years the way we did?"

(A) It is true in many high schools. Teachers now believe it takes at least four years really to learn a language.

ALMANAC

Today is Tuesday, Sept. 22, the 265th day of the year, with 100 more days in 1959.

The moon is approaching its last quarter. The morning star is Venus. The evening stars are Jupiter and Saturn.

On this date in history. In 1692, the last of 19 persons were hanged in the American colonies for "witchcraft."

In 1776, Captain Nathan Hale was hanged as a Revolutionary spy by the British in New York City. In 1789, Congress authorized the creation of the office of Postmaster General of the U. S. In 1943, Kate Smith, popular stage and radio star, completed her radio war bond marathon at 2 a.m. Her 13-hour appeal spurred radio listeners to pledge to bonds totaling $839,000,000.

A thought for today: Captain Nathan Hale mounted the scaffold to die for his country with these words: "I only regret that I have but one life to lose for my country."

Japan has "okonomi-yaki" or "do-it-yourself" restaurants. Waitresses bring a tray of ingredients and the diner cooks his own meal on a small grill.

Bar Refuses Anti-Red Plan Again

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—The California State Bar Assn. voted down for the third consecutive year yesterday a resolution calling for disbarment of attorneys who belong to the Communist Party.

The voice vote—which doubled the measure by about a two-to-three margin—came during the association's convention, which opened at the Fairmont Hotel.

Some 2,500 attorneys are attending the five-day convention.

More than 60 measures still remain on the delegates' agenda. Still pending is one proposing that the association applaud the U. S. Supreme Court for its safeguarding of the Bill of Rights.

Most of the measures are legal ones, which have been recommended by local bar associations. If approved by the conference of State Bar delegates, they will be forwarded to the State Bar's Board of Governors for inclusion in the organization's legislative program.

Plans Laid For Pony Express Fete In 1960

By CARLETON WILLIAMS

The spirit of the early West rode again in Marin last week-end when two direct descendants of the founders of the Pony Express met to lay plans for the forthcoming centennial celebration of the famed mail run.

They are Ergo Alexander Majors, 82-year-old grandson of Alexander Majors, and Col. Waddell F. Smith of San Rafael, great-grandson of William Bradford Waddell.

Majors and Waddell, with William H. Russell, founded, owned and operated the short-lived Pony Express which carried the mail from St. Joseph, Mo., to Sacramento from April 3, 1860, until Nov. 20, 1861.

The dramatic and heroic run, which covered the 1,966 miles in nine days on a regular schedule, played a major part in keeping California in the Union at a time when Confederate forces threatened to split the southwestern United States from the East.

On July 19, 1960, the grueling ride will be re-enacted as part of the 100-year anniversary.

The meeting of the two grandchildren of the founders took place in the historic Pony Express history and art gallery which Smith maintains at his home at 75 Margarita drive, San Rafael.

PLAN FETE

Seated at a massive oaken table and surrounded by memorabilia of the early West, including saddles and equipment of Pony Express riders, Majors and Smith reviewed the history of the ride and discussed the highlights of next year's celebration.

Included in the plans is the issuance of a commemorative postage stamp, a design for which has been submitted for approval by the Post Office Department's stamp advisory committee.

It is of great concern to both men that their forebears gain the credit due them for sparking the Pony Express era in American history.

According to Smith, who is president of the National Pony Express Centennial Celebration, history has been distorted in many cases to give Wells-Fargo an undue share of credit for the Pony Express.

FALSE VERSION

History has it—even in several children's history books—that Wells-Fargo "absorbed" the Pony Express at the conclusion of its life. This is not true, Smith says.

"Wells-Fargo were merely local agents for the Pony Express during the last six months of its existence," he declared. "When Russell, Majors and Waddell quit the run, it was dead."

The firm, which lost at least one million dollars on the Pony Express operation, discontinued the horseback mail run when the converging wires of the transcontinental telegraph were tied together and the first message flashed from coast to coast.

80 RIDERS

At the height of its life, the Pony Express required more than 400 men at 190 way-stations needed for the 80 riders. In the 18 months of its history, more than 150 round trips were made between Missouri and Sacramento. In all, 650,000 miles were covered, only one sack of mail was lost and only one man lost his life.

Dr. Majors, who recalls sitting at his grandfather's knee as a youngster and hearing tales of the blizzards, floods, hostile Indians and accidents which plagued the riders, concurs with Smith in his appraisal of Wells-Fargo's role in the venture.

The handsome, silver-haired doctor, who "delivered more than 2,000 babies" into the world during his years of practice in Monterey County and Oakland, plans to be on hand for the ribbon-cutting ceremonies which will begin the celebration next year.

He and his wife now divide their time between Bass Lake, Madera County, and their winter home in Scottsdale, Ariz.

Cubs To Get Pins

New Cubs will receive their Bobcat pins at the Novato Kiwanis Cub Scout Pack 12 first meeting of the season at 7:30 p.m. Friday in Marion School. Plans for a toy rummage sale in November will be discussed. Charles Spencer is Cubmaster.

HELPS PLAN CENTENNIAL—Ergo Alexander Majors, grandson of one of the founders of the Pony Express, surveys Pony Express Retreat museum of Col. Waddell F. Smith of San Rafael, great-grandson of another founder, during visit to help plan Pony Express Centennial for next year. Smith is national president of the centennial.

Mill Valley's Planners To Meet Tonight

A request for approval for subdivision of 11 acres in the Garden Hill subdivision will be considered at tonight's meeting of the Mill Valley Planning Commission.

The land, part of the Sterling Development Co. portion of Garden Hill, is west of Camino Alto and is opposite Garden Hill Unit No. 1, now being developed.

The planners also have a series of continued items to consider including plans by former auto dealer Herbert Shapiro for a variety store at 395B Miller avenue.

Probation Granted In Forgery Case

Mrs. Inger Kelly, 32-year-old Terra Linda housewife, drew three years' probation for forging a prescription to get dextro-drine. Judge Thomas F. Keating of Marin Superior Court also ordered her to take psychiatric treatment.

Mrs. Kelly was arrested at her home on Del Ganado road last May. Sheriff's investigators said she had forged the name of a Redwood City doctor to obtain dextro-drine from Marin pharmacies.

Contract Awarded For Hospital Wing

A contract for construction of the $250,000 two-story addition to Ross General Hospital was awarded to Plant Brothers Corp. of San Francisco yesterday, Dr. John C. Siemens, hospital administrator, announced. The firm submitted a base bid of $192,556, the lowest of six received.

The hospital's board of directors awarded the contract at a special session. Action has not yet been taken on contracts for the various alternates involved in the construction project.

The new wing will be constructed on the west end of the hospital. Demolition of two old houses, landmarks on the hospital grounds for 40 years is scheduled to begin this week.

The houses have been used for the physical therapy department and for employees' quarters.

The addition will include a modern surgery with three operating rooms, a new clinical laboratory, new X-ray department, and will add 20 beds to the present 56-bed capacity of the hospital's medical and surgical departments.

Construction of the wing will begin as soon as the demolition of the houses is completed, Dr. Siemens said, and it should be ready by April 1, 1960. The new wing will connect the main building of the hospital with the existing kitchen and dining room, now housed in a separate building.

APPOINTED—Alex McClure has been appointed general sales manager of the Pacific Coast Engineering Co. of Alameda. A graduate metallurgical engineer and formerly sales manager for American Glass Fibers, Inc., he lives at 38 Knoll road, San Anselmo.

Council Meet Set Tonight In Sausalito

A long agenda including several controversial items will highlight tonight's meeting of the Sausalito City Council at the city hall at 8 o'clock.

Controversial items include a request by Trade Fair owner Luther Conover to permit permanent location of the old Ferry Berkeley in its present ferry slip at the foot of El Portal street.

Another such item involves mounting objection to requests for variances from lot coverage and height limit restrictions for a proposed elaborate apartment project at Shelter Cove.

Other major items include a recommendation from the recreation commission for city acquisition of waterfront property and bid openings for widening the turn at Brideway and Richardson street.

Also scheduled is a hearing on adoption of the city's general plan.

County Red Cross Unit To Hold 47th Meet Tomorrow

The 47th annual meeting and recognition tea of the Marin County Chapter, American Red Cross, will be held at 2 p.m. tomorrow at the Officers Club at Hamilton Air Force Base.

Also scheduled to address the group is Judy Boss, Dominican College student who traveled abroad this summer with 14 other students selected on a nationwide basis as part of the Junior Red Cross program.

Co-chairmen of the event are Mrs. D. W. Chapman, volunteer chairman, and Mrs. Dimitri K. Karaghiosoff, Red Cross unit chairman at Hamilton Air Force Base. Pouring at the tea will be Mrs. George F. Ceuleers, wife of the Hamilton Air Force Base commander; Maj. Angelena Essex, chief nurse at the 78th Air Force Hospital; Mrs. Charles Bennett, chairman of Hamilton's nurses aides, and Mrs. Johnny A. Twelve new directors will be elected at the business meeting, announced Mrs. T. C. Wellman, chairman of the nominating committee. There are 36 directors, elected on a rotating basis every three years.

Red Cross members and volunteers throughout the county have been invited to attend the meeting.

OUR CHANGING SCHOOLS

Schools' Study Guide Changing With World

By JACK SIMCOX

Distribution of the new three-volume Marin County Curriculum Guide after six years in production has raised questions as to its necessity and its nature.

Proof of the necessity seems almost elementary. The curriculum has not been revised since 1943; the world has.

Information about the guide has come out bit by bit, failing in many cases to clarify the nature of the revision.

Opponents to the guide have called it, among other things, a victory for "progressive education."

Proponents say it is indicative of man's attempt to see that his ability to understand himself does not lag too far behind his ability to destroy himself.

Examination shows the areas of science, language arts (communication) and social science have undergone the greatest change, as might be expected.

The science curriculum was dismissed after a page and a half of guidance for all eight grades in the 1943 study course.

Forty-three pages are devoted to science in the new guide, giving a basis for understanding advances in jet and rocket propulsion (space travel) and atomic and astrophysics.

The scope of social studies is also much broadened in the new guide, seeking to help teachers lead pupils to the realization that the world does not begin and end at the Marin County boundaries.

An insight into the nature of the revised guide is provided by observing the sequence of the progressively enlarging scope of social studies in Volume I, for example, under the heading "Suggested Sequence in Social Studies for Marin County Schools."
